

SAURDAY EVING, SEPT. 26, 1874

The First of the Libel Suits. The first of the libel suits, brought by the Hon. Geo. Brown against several publishers of newspapers...

The Hon. J. H. Cameron and Mr. Edgar were Mr. Brown's counsel, and Mr. M. C. Cameron appeared for the defendant Cliffe. From the Globe's short report of the case...

After the necessary witnesses to establish the libel and prove the responsibility of the defendant had been examined, counsel on both sides addressed the jury. His Lordship (Judge Morrison) in charging the jury...

There is quite an agitation in Goderich at present over the proposal of the Town Council to pass a By-law re-imposing market fees.

The Paisley Advocate says that no little ill-feeling exists in the Township of Greenock by the Deputy Reeve and others at the last moment appealing against twenty-five men whose names appeared in the Voters' List...

CHANGE OF GAGE ON THE C. T. R. On Friday afternoon the change of gage up in the eastern division of the Grand Trunk Railway commenced...

Snooks' boy heard him say the other day that there was money in hens, and he proceeded to investigate the old man's poultry-yard. He had gone through a dozen specimens when the old man succeeded upon him, and the boy now wonders if there is a balm in Gilead.

THE MARKETS. This morning the veg table market was lively with buyers and sellers, and the business done was large. Among the articles on sale were a number of baskets of luscious-looking grapes...

Races in Sacramento, California. Affairs in New Orleans.

The Rifle Match at Creedmore. Col. Stoffel and Bazaine.

Chicago, Sept. 25.—Gen. Shaler, of New York has been invited by the Fire Commissioners to come to Chicago and make a thorough examination of all matters connected with the Fire Department and bearing upon the insurance question.

Sacramento, Cal. Sept. 25.—At the trot for the prize of $50,000 to-day, Sam Purdy made 2, 1, 1, 1; Occident, 1, 1, 2, 2, and Black Bird, 2, 3, 3, 3. Time 22, 24, 22, 23, 23, 28, when it was announced that Purdy had won over the famous Californian. An indescribable scene of excitement ensued...

New York, Sept. 25.—The Tribune has a special from New Orleans, which says: "On the day of the Pennsylvania coup d'etat, when the Revolutionists seized the State House after Governor Kellogg's retreat, a large number of official and private letters were found in the archives of the office, and have since been in the possession of the citizens. They implicate prominent men in Washington, including two Senators, to the extent that they are shown to have asked for an acknowledged receipt of large sums of money from Kellogg, while the Louisiana case, involving the seating of Pinchback or McMillan was before the Senate."

New York, Sept. 26.—The International Rifle Match between the representative Irish and American marksmen at Creedmore to-day will not be concluded, it is thought, until late in the evening. [A movement is on foot in Montreal to invite the Irish riflemen, who are taking part in the above competition at Creedmore, to visit Canada and have a contest here with some of our crack shots.]

London, Sept. 26.—Colonel Stoffel has published a pamphlet vindicating himself in connection with the famous suppressed despatch from Bazaine to McMahon. He charges that McMahon's march to Sedan was caused by Orleanist intrigues.

Berlin, Sept. 26.—The Volksblatt semi-official journal, accuses Danish agitators with intriguing for the resumption of the whole of Schleswig to Denmark, and declares that the North Schleswig question should have long ago ceased to exist.

Mr. Andrew Aitchison is about to erect a cheese factory near the Gothic Mills, on the 6th con., Elma. Such is the faith of Plymouth Church in the virtue of Mr. Beecher, that it is proposed to raise his salary to $30,000 as a compensation for his trials.

A project is under the consideration of Hamilton curiers, for the holding of a grand bonspiel, to take place upon Burlington Bay during the coming season. Chief-Justice Wood presided at a lecture on temperance delivered by Mr. Peter O'Leary, at the Court-house, Windsor, on the evening of the 24th inst. About two hundred persons were present.

It has been shown that at the Michigan Agricultural College a single bushel of plaster added a full ton of hay to the yield of an acre of ground in the five, most of it in the four mowings that followed—two crops being taken off the ground each of the two years succeeding the sowing of the plaster.

A man named Greenan received such injuries by being thrown out of a new wagon near Lucknow a short time ago, that he died, mortification having set in. NARROW ESCAPE.—A lad named Robt. Weatherspoon, living on lot 10, con. 4, Grey, while recently assisting in rearing a house to admit of a foundation being built beneath, the screw-jacks slipped and one end of the house fell on the boy. He would undoubtedly have been crushed to death, but for some bondlers lying upon the ground. As it was, his left hip joint was dislocated, and he suffered other minor injuries.
