GRANUM AND STAVELEY TO MIX IN FIRST GAME
Baseball Season in Southern Alberta League to Open Next Wednesday
The baseball season opens in Granum next Wednesday at 2 p.m. with Staveley and Granum in the initial mix-up.

Staveley has a fine bunch of steady players who never lose but by a close margin and in the most cheerful manner, and a good game is expected. The Granum team has been strengthened considerably since last season and may be relied on to put up their usual classy game of ball.

One of last year's weak spots is being acceptably closed up by Leroux, the new short-stop man, and Cronin, third-baseman and catcher, is making an exceptionally good showing. Lefty MacLeod is back on the second sack, the outfield shows a big improvement, and the infield looks 25 to 50 per cent better than last year, with old Herb on first.

All the boys are showing up well in batting practice and the game on Wednesday should be well attended to send the boys away to a good start in the race for the pennant.—Press.

NO INTERFERENCE WITH FIGHT, SAYS PROMOTER
Johnny Reid is Organizing a Party to Go to San Francisco to See Battle
The latest news from the scene of the big fight to be received locally is the following letter to Johnny Reid from Jim Coffroth, the Frisco fight promoter: It will be noticed that Coffroth says there will be no police interference with the big battle.

Exhibition Game
The evening game was only an exhibition one. It was the intention of the club to play it a league game in place of the postponed one of Wednesday. Manager White, however, objected on account of his men not being in shape. It was not compulsory for a manager to play a double header in the first series, and the Frisco manager took advantage of the rules. Both teams were changed considerably. Charlie Crist pitched for Calgary, and he played several balls, only allowing six scattered hits, and some of those might easily have been chalked up as errors instead of hits. McClair allowed seven hits, of which Tallant got two.

CALGARY GRABS SECOND FROM THE DEACONS

Pitcher Who Blew Up Discovered in Mr. Dell, and Carney's Men Win
Calgary took the second game from Deacon yesterday afternoon at the ball park by six to two in a game that was fast and interesting, all the time. The evening one, which was only an exhibition game, resulted in a nine innings tie of one run each.

There was some very good baseball in the afternoon game. Both Dell of Edmonton and Peter Standridge of Calgary pitched excellent ball. Slim Dell was a breeze right up to the seventh. Until then he held the Calgary batters to only one hit, and without any resemblance of score. In this seventh Slim took a balloon ascent, and during the time he was in the air Carney's bunch tallied six times. Conners was equal to the occasion and slammed out a peach to right field, scoring Carney. Deacon then tried to catch a maul on third and threw the ball in. By the time Brennan got the ball in the three runners had scored, making a total of four. This did not finish the merry go round. Conners got a pass, and Stanley advanced him to second. Standridge then sailed to bat and slammed out a three bagger, scoring Conners, and Duggan scored on a sacrifice. Standridge's second inning came out for the second time in this inning, but got thrown out at first.

This clinched the game for Calgary, as they had no possible chance of Standridge loosening up. Pete, however, was in a bad hole in the eighth, but got out of it at a cost of only one run. He hit Dell. Mills got a hit, slug Olsen brought Dell home. Edmonton's other tally came in the fourth. Rube Mills slammed out a three bagger, Olsen and Baxter got a pass, and Mills came home off Morse's out. Outside these innings both pitchers did good work. The Esquimos only hit Pete safe four times, and Dell got fouled safe for seven bingles. Flanagan's pinch hit made him a hero amongst the fans, and a collection from the grand stand netted him a neat little sum for seven bingles. Outside the above mentioned plays the other innings were short and mostly of the one, two, three order. The rest of the game can be told by the box score.

The game this afternoon is called for 7:30 sharp. As the present series now stands one each, the game should be a close one for seven bingles. Manning will work for Calgary and Samuels for Edmonton. Both these pitchers are considered the best on each team, and the battle should be a royal one for supremacy. The score:

RACING SEASON OPENED IN NEW YORK

Some Splendid Horses in the Metropolitan Handicap
New York, May 13.—The Metropolitan handicap, the first real handicap of the year, was opened today by brilliant sunshine and gentle breezes, and scores of special trains carried many thousands to the beautiful Belmont Park track.

This is officially the first outdoor day of the season and the select set made their summer salutation at Belmont Park. It also opened the coaching season, the first drive being made in the races.

The Metropolitan has always called out the best horses in training and this year's no exception. In the list of starters there was material for a great race. In all respects it was the finest lot of fast horses that have ever been named to start in this event for many years. These included Fashion Plate, a fast miler; Stanley Fay, one of the best horses in the west last year; Firestone, Jack Atkin called the "Handicap King"; Priscilla, a gelding that had an excellent record until he made his ill-starred trip to England; Masette called the greatest filly since the day of the peerless Artful; King James the hero last year of the Metropolitan and Restigouche, a fast horse and keen contestant for many events in the last two years.

Horsemen were divided before the race between James R. Keene's great mare Masette and the holder of entries, King James, Restigouche and Firestone.

San Francisco, Cal., May 13.—Although promoter Ted Rickard is plainly apprehensive that the opposing fight factions may not be able to agree on a referee at Monday's conference, both Johnson, and his manager, George Little profess confidence in a settlement of the problem on the appointed date. Johnson said last night that he was certain to put one of his own choice in the much-mooted place, intimating that Jeffries would give in, but reports from Ben Lomond fall short of bearing out the negro champion's expectations. Jeffries apparently is as firmly resolved to stand by his own selections as Johnson is by his, and unless the situation changes surprisingly in the interval, a deadlock is likely to be reached.

The Calgary Rifle Club's shot for the Quebec medal was shot on Thursday. Excellent scores were made, resulting in a tie between H. A. Crofton and F. Kaye, their score being 146 out of a possible 150. The tie was shot off on Friday, and F. Kaye was declared the winner, his score being 147 out of a possible 150. Kaye is a young and promising shot, and bids fair to make another champion for Calgary.

This completes the season for miniature shooting. It is certain that next winter a larger and better range is expected after the splendid work of the members. It is safe to say the membership will be tripled. All members wishing to join the Calgary Rifle Club had better do so at once, as the season is just commencing, and good clean sport is anticipated.
