Perfectly Cured

Weak and Low Spirited - Nervous Prostration - Appetite Poor and Could Not Rest.

"I take great pleasure in recommending Hood's Sarsaparilla to others. It has been the means of restoring my wife to good health. She was stricken down with an attack of nervous prostration. She suffered with headaches and her nerves were under severe strain. She became very low spirited and so weak she could only do a little work without resting. Her appetite was poor, and being so weak she could not get the proper rest at night. She decided to try Hood's Sarsaparilla, as we had heard it highly praised, and I am glad to state that Hood's Sarsaparilla has perfectly cured all her ailments." G. KING OTTO DYING. London, Aug. 8.-The latest news of the condition of King Otto of Bavaria indicates that the end of the unhappy monarch is approaching. Since his 25th year King Otto has been hopelessly insane, and has spent nearly 20 years in seclusion at the castle of Furstenried, near Munich. He has been "king" since 1886, when his brother, Ludwig II., came to an untimely end. Until lately the king has eaten drank well, and smoked some 40 cigarettes a day. But since Christmas he has rarely left his bedroom, and in all probability will never do so again. THE LATE ARCHBISHOP WALSH!

A Roseate Picture of the Hawaiian Islands

Drawn by Louis Francis Brown the Manager of Burton Holmes.

Burton Holmes, the lecturer, has just returned to this country from the Hawaiian Islands, where he has been traveling since the middle of June, in company with his assistant and manager, accumulating material for a lecture on the islands. Mr. Louis Franci Brown, the manager of the lecturer, who accompanied Mr. Holmes on his travels, was seen at the Detroit Club by a Detroit Free Press representative. Mr. Brown told some very interesting things about the latest acquisition to the territory of the United States. Was in Honolulu during all the interesting scenes just prior to the culmination of the annexation movement and the passing of the American troops on their way to Manila, "The hospitality of the people of the Hawaiian Islands," said he, "is un-When rivaled the world over. Boys in Blue came through, that is, the first expedition, the city opened its arms to them and gave them everything within its power. The sum of money expended on this occasion alone was $7,500. All the stores gave free beer, soda water, cigars. The street cars were free to the soldiers, and free dinners were served on the executive grounds. Nearly every white proved himself to be an enthusiastic supporter of annexation and the natives are more favorable to the movement than ever before. This change has been accomplished by two things. The publication of Queen Lil's book, Royalists somewhat by reflecting on the character and traits of the natives, caused them to look more favorably than formerly upon the new order of things. Then the coming of the American troops has given them an idea of America which they never had before.
