The Prohibitionists in Convention Score President Rossevelt's Daughter.

Columbus, Ohio, July 16 .- For president, Eugene W. Chafin, of Chicago; for vice-president, Aaron S. Watkins, of Ada, Ohio. The ticket was nominated today by the Prohibitionists' national convention, and both nominations were made unanimous. The full indorsement of the convention was not, however, given to Mr. Chafin until after three ballots had been taken. On the first two ballots Mr. Chafin did not show a great amount of strength, receiving but 195 out of 1, 083 votes on the first, 376 out of 1,087 on the second ballot. His nomination was assured, however, when the roll call began for the third ballot. His dated Aug. 21, 1907, Mr. Titus stated delegation, which voted for A. L. Manerier followed by those of Indiana and Wisconsin, came over to Mr Chafin, and on the third callot he received a total of 636 votes. It was then decided to take Mr. Palcondition our city is in for lack of Let us have this spring water for five nore, the vice-presidential nominee anything approaching an adequate fire years at least, and it will not cost the and he was named by acclamation. > Professor Watkins was then made the unanimous choice of the convention. Both the presidential and vicepresidential nominees are candidates for governors in their respective states on the prohibition ticket.

Eugene W. Chafin, who leads the prohibition party this year, is an attorney. He is a native of Waukesh County, Wisconsin.

Some very uncomplimentary things about Mrs. Alice Roosevelt-Longworth, daughter of the President, were said last night at a meeting of the Kentucky delegation to the convention. after which the delegation laid on the table a resolution to indorse the action of three members of the delegation in inviting Mrs. Longworth to attend the national convention as the guest of the Kentucky delegation.

In the course of a spirited debate, it is largely in their stocks, unprotected THAMESFORD PEOPLE BUSY was charged that Mrs. Longworth has been known to use the cigarette, and that she has attended the Latonia Housewives Laying Up Stores of Fruit horse races. Itw as declared that she is not the type of woman that should be invited to a prehibition convention. Mrs. Frances E. Beauchamp, of Thamesford, July 16.-Dr. Lorrie Lexington, Ky., the only woman memand sister, of Toronto, visited Mrs. ber of the national committee, said that Mrs. Longworth does not stand for the best in womanhood and those things which Kentucky women especially hold dear.

The invitation now stands, as the result of the delgation's action, merely as the invitation of the three dele gates named, and if Mrs. Longworth of Parkdale, visited with Mrs. E. A. attends the convention she will be the guest of the three members who energetically defended her.
