BELIEVE CHAPMAN INNOCENT VICTIM

Police Declare Triple Murder Outcome of War Among Bootleggers.

Canadian Press Despatch. Hamilton, June 28.—The police have iscovered that bad blood has existed between several other bootleggers and William Buda, one of the three found murdered last Thursday. Word was received from Montreal that Mike Lakatuch, husband of the woman found murdered, is still in penitentiary there.

The police believe that the woman and Buda incurred the enmity of other potleggers, and hold that Chapman, the other murdered party; was an innocent victim, whose presence in the house cost him his life. Buda was alleged to have run what is locally known as an "alky foint" where nothing but raw alcohol is served. There has been acute trouble between Buda and men running similar places in the neighborhood. One man whom Buda is alleged to have quarrelled, was threatened by police, but was able to prove an alibi.
