lothing re stock German eze, and Winter

ING.

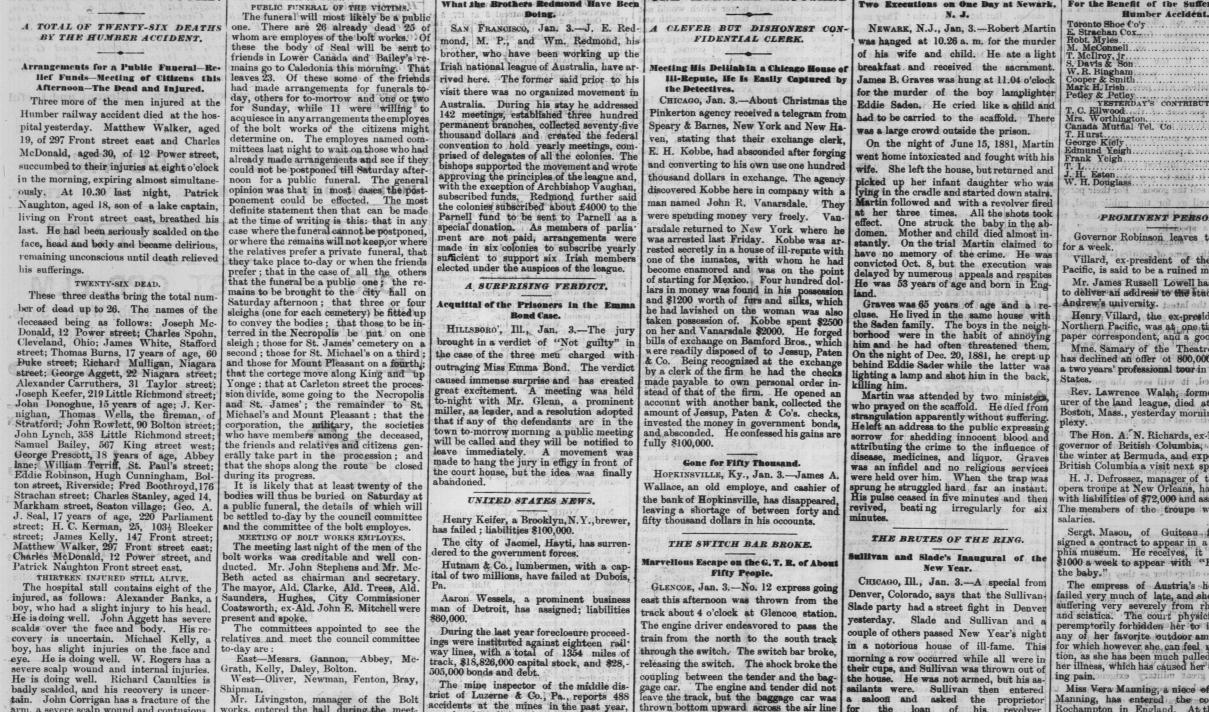

Coats so in stock. ap Coat, nly Ten

S. FREIGHT oprietors. Canada have

ION TREET.

the state of the second solution will do it is an even solution of the American govern-the state of the American govern-the state of the American govern-the solution govern-the solution of the American govern-the

FRIDAY MORNING. JANUARY 4, 1884.

ONE HUNDRED THOUSAND

in a notorious house of ill-fame. This through the switch. The switch bar broke, releasing the switch. The shock broke the coupling between the tender and the bag-gage car. The engine and tender did not leave the track, but the baggage car was thrown bottom upward across the air line track and the wheels were thrown into the ditch. The passenger car, smoking car and two Pullmans kept on the north track an dwere saved from destruction through through the switch. The switch bar broke. van commenced mauling him. The friends of the saloon man then pitched in and from the saloon floor the war was carand were saved from destruction through n Slade came to

M. McConnell F. McIroy, jr. 5. Davis & Son W. R. Bingham Cooper & Smith Mark H. Irish Petley & Petley. YESTERDAY'S CONTRIBUTIONS. YESTERDAY'S CON T.C. Ellwood Mrs. Worthington. Canada Muthal Tel. Co. T. Hurst. George Kiely. Edmund Yeigh. Frank Yeigh. T. L. PROMINENT PERSONS. Governor Robinson leaves town to-day Villard, ex-president of the Northern Pacific, is said to be a ruined man. Mr. James Russell Lowell has consented o deliver an address to the students of St. Andrew's university. Jestal add to

WORLD FUND.

Henry Villard, the ex-president of the Northern Pacific, was at one time a news paper correspondent, and a good one, too. Mme. Samary of the Theatre Francais, has declined an offer of 800,000 francs for a two years' professional tour in the United

Rev. Lawrence Walsh; formerly [treas-arer of the land league, died at a hotel in Boston, Mass., yesterday morning, of apo-The Hon. A. N. Richards, ex-lientenat overnor of British Columbia, will spend he winter at Bermuda, and expects to pay British Columbia a visit next spring. H. J. Defrossez, manager of the French opera troupe at New Orleans, has assigned with liabilities of $72,000 and assets $1000. The members of the troupe want their Sergt. Masou, of Guiteau fame is signed a contract to appear in a Philadel phia museum. He receives, it is stated, $1000 a week to appear with "Betty and the bebr".

The empress of Austria's health has failed very much of late, and she has been suffering very severely from rheumatism and sciatica. The court physicians have peremptorily forbidden her to indulge in any of her favorite outdoor amusements, for which however she can feel no inclina-tion, as she has been much pulled down by her illness, which has caused her excruciating pain. Miss Vera Manning, a niece of Cardinal Manning, has entered the convent at Rochampton in England. At the expira-tion of three months' probation she will re-turn to the world again for another three months, and then, should she still desire a TACTICS OF THE NATIONALISTS.

Meetings to be Held at the Different H religious life, she will take the veil. Th posed to the dissolution of parliament in the event of the Tords rejecting the fran-chise bill. Eighty-five per cent of the replies favor the taking up of the franchise question as the first measure for consider-ation, Only three out of a hundred re-plies object to giving Ireland the same rights and privileges as enjoyed by Eng-ENGLAND OR ISMAIL PASHA. Egypt Crying for British Annexation or the Restoration of Her ex-Khedive. CAIRO, Jan. 3.-It is reported that El Mahdi's brother in law, after occupying Kawa and Duem, has arrived at a point

CRONTO WORI DA

PRICE ONE CENT.

THE ENGLISH FRANCHISE

OPINIONS OF LIBERAL MEMBERS

ON THE OUESTION.

Only Three Per Cent Opposed to Conferring the Same Rights on Irishman as on Englishmen. Londox, Jan. 3.—The Pall Mall Gazette ublishes the results of an inquiry addressed to the liberal members of the house of ommons regarding the program of the next session. A hundred members are op-within thirty miles of Khartoum. The governor of Khartoum telegraphed that he s prepared to receive the enemy. Much lifficulty has arisen from the French opposition to English policy. The cabinet crisis continues. Discontent is universal. There is a general cry for Ismail Pasha or English annexation. It is stated that Camille Barrere, is stated that Camille Barrere, French consul general has informed the knedive that if England is unwilling or un-able to defend Egypt against El Mahdi, France is willing and able to defend her. Baker Pasha has left Suakim to treat with the Abyssinian chiefs, and secure the retreat of the Khartoum garrison via Kas-sala. El Mahdi is gaining ground with the secure the revolt is spreading aorthward. northward.

TRACE THORY

IRISH IMMIGRATION.

The Opinion of O'Donnell's Counsel on in assigned allo system DUBLIN, Jan. 3. -- Chas. Russell, Q.C., member of parliament, in a lecture upon his recent experiences in America, asserted that notwithstanding the deficiencies in education and money of the Irish immigrants in America their fight in life has been creditable to them as a nation. In future emigration should be effected under conditions securing as far as possible a degree of success, material and otherwise.

EAR'S

er's Prices

SH.

chan Jackets. s & Dolmans.

pes and Caps

an Lamb Ceats

Sleigh Robes.

BROS. TREET.

ATCHES

FOR

IVEN THAT AN the to the legisla-ce of Ontario at a act to auther-street Railway or debentures of ng. to issue new suid company to ad upon, and to ie same and ap-ment of the bond debts of the said

he Toronto St &

RDS. BLACKSTOCK rner Well ngton

RNER ST. PAT-LAIDE STREET

& Williams, building papers, Asphalt Roofing, ges, thus being

LT WORKS, J.H. de street west m work, engine out hooks, eave

SON. BARRIS. A DAVID HEN.

The set of the set of Fitzgerald has scalds over felt at the terrible accident which had At a late hour last night it well. At a late hour last night it was reported as doubtful if more than three or four of them would recover. Be-sides those at the hospital, two brothers, Robert and John Montgomery, who live on Front street, each had a broken leg from the period the street, each had a broken leg from Robert and John Montgomery, who brothers, Front street, each had a broken leg from the accident. They were taken to their home. Victor Giroux of King street east, were picked men, their old hands, and those that were taken away so suddenly, were of the very best. He hoped the friends of the deceased would make no hasty settlement with the Grand Trunk but that they would act jointly. That the road would have to pay and Thomas McDonald, Power street, arm bruised and face cut, were also removed to their homes. The thirteenth man injured is Jeffrey, the engine driver on the freight train, who is lying at his boarding house, 31 Mercer street. He is wounded in the skull and body, but it is not thought that his wounds will prove fatal. REMOVAL OF THE BODIES.

FIFTH YEAR.

A. TOTAL OF TWENTY-SIX DEATHS

BY THE HUMBER ACCIDENT.

Arrangements for a Public Funeral-Re lief Funds-Meeting of Citizens this Afternoon-The Dead and Injured.

Three more of the men injured at the Humber railway accident died at the hos-

19, of 297 Front street east and Charles

McDonald, aged 30, of 12 Power street, succumbed to their injuries at eight o'clock in the morning, expiring almost simultaneously. At 10.30 last night, Patrick Naughton, aged 18, son of a lake captain, living on Front street east, breathed his last. He had been seriously scalded on the face, head and body and became delirious. remaining unconscious until death relieved

TWENTY-SIX DEAD.

ber of dead up to 26. The names of the arm, a severe scalp wound and contusions. He is doing well. Patrick Caveney is badly scalded, but is feeling well, which, however, is no guarantee of his recovery, as they suffer less towards the end.

Patrick Naughton Front street east.

RELIEF FUNDS.

Y the city.

the council adjourned.

Thos, Hunter. Ald. Piper. Ald. Irwin. John Shannessy

Capt. Kemp... Pearson Bros.

Col. Gzowski. Ald. Walker... Ald. Davies... Ald. Denison

A. Stinson. W. Donohue...... H. M. Armstrong. Small sums.....

Total

scriptions yesterday

Total.

Employes of a wholesale grocery.

The mayor received the following sub-

The News list was reported to be about

These three deaths bring the total num-

MORE SUCCUMB,

THREE

his sufferings.

jointly. That the road would have to pay as far as money would pay, for the misery the accident had caused. The damages ought to be assessed so that the children of deceased and others dependent on them could be properly cared for. The bolt company paid the Grand Trunk $30,000 for freight let alone the passenger money. A vote of thanks was tendered by the men to the neuroparameters (and enceight). The The misunderstanding between Dr. Lynd and Dr. Johnson as to who should act as coroner at the inquest was amicably settled yesterday, Dr. Johnson withdrawmen to the newspapers (and especially The World) who had started subscription lists, ing. Dr. Lynd's order for the removal of the bodies from the morgue to their homes and to all who had given money toward the aid of the families of the dead

Shipman. Mr. Livingston, manager of the Bolt works, entered the hall during the meet-ing. He had just arrived from New York. He was called upon to speak. He told the men he had not much to say, in fact he could not express in words th the bodies from the morgue to their homes was therefore carried out yesterday. The work of removing the bodies commenced at 10 in the morning and was continued until late in the afternoon. It was a melancholy business and brought tears to the eyes of those who engaged in and wit-massed it NOTES. Nearly $200 has been collected in Park-

The knights of labor will probably turn out in a body.

Three of the dead employes of the bolt The citizens yesterday began to give practical expression to their sympathy by contributing toward the different relief works are Roman catholic The Queen's Own and Tenth Royals have each a man among the lost. funds that had been organized throughout The band of the bolt works (those left of the city. The council held a special meeting in the afternoon. Mayor Boswell intimated that hem) will play in the procession. At the citizens meeting to day some joint action ought to and will probably be taken to form a single fund for the aid of the relatives of the deceased. the city commissioner had made enquiries among the families of the deceased, and found that nearly all were left in poor circumstances. He suggested that a lib-eral grant be made for their relief. Ald. Clarke moved that appear The Ontario trade benevolent association will meet this afternoon in Germania hall Ald. Clarke moved that $2000 be appropriated for this purpose, which was carried, several aldermen speaking in sup port of it. Ald. Hall offered a resolution to the effect that the mayor write to the at 3 to organize a hotelkeepers subscrip-tion for the benefit of the widows and tion for orphans of the deceased.

The Tenth Royal Grenadiers have Grand Trunk authorities at Montreal asking what assistance they proposed to ren-der. Ald. Hall charged the company with being dilatory in the matter, and Ald. ternoon. The regiment will parade at Brock street and Wellington place at 1.30.

A large turnout is expected. Charles Thomas, the dead fireman of the special, resides at 106 Esther street, this city. He made his run to Stratford as usual and took the place on the special of another fireman, who was suddenly taken in the mage successful control taken being dilatory in the matter, and Ald. Steiner suggested that something should be done to prevent the company from set-tling claims for small amounts should it attempt to do so. Ald. Baxter defended the company, but Ald. Turner, while not going so for as Ald. Hall thought the company is defended the company to the relief ill. He was a very intelligent young fel-low and was well connected. He will be taken to Whitby for burial. should lose no time in coming to the relief of the sufferers. Ald. Hall withdrew his motion. A resolution requesting the mayor to call a public meeting of citizens D company, Queen's Own Rifles, met at the the armory last night and passed a resolu-tion of regret at the death of their late comrade, H. D. Kerman, at the same time for this afternoon to see what further aid would be required was carried after which roting \$50 to his widow. The company The list of subscriptions raised in St. John's ward Wednesday night as publishsent an elegant floral pillow to the sent an elegant floral pillow to the house of mourning. The funeral takes place from  $103\frac{1}{2}$  Bleeker street this afternoon, and will be attended by the members of the com-pany, who parade at the armory at 1.30. ed in these columns yesterday was not complete, two or three names being omit-ted. The following is the correct list :

Police Court Pointers.

Eleven drunks were put through the mill yesterday. Four vagrants were allowed to go. Joseph Aber got thirty days, Duncan-Ritchie, a nightwatchman, found drunk on his beat, was fined $1 and costs, and $20 and costs for having a revolver without a permit. Duncan Grant and Wm. Phair were fined for assaulting Wm. Moore, the one $5 and costs and the other $40 and costs. The case of selling liquor without a license against Josehine Parker was dismissed. George Alberti and John Alberti, disorderly conduct, each $1 and costs.

The Assize Court.

The York winter assize court was yes terday opened by Justice Rose. There are $200 last night. Wm. Leak & Co., lumber men, sent $2: to the secretary of the Bolt company. The men in Mr. R. M. Larter's shop, 433 Yonge street, sends 55 in aid of the suf-farers. Prof. De Galles of the Grand opera hause building, sends 55 for relief of suf-farers. Thomas Cleghorn of Cleghorn & Son, sends 55 for the widow of H. D. Ker-pan. John Holderness of the Albion

. $10 00

$53 50

12 00

. $167 00

lars still outstanding. The remainder of the thirty-five million origin-ally coined are thought to have been exported or remelted.

track, $18,826,000 capital stock, and $28, 505,000 bonds and debt.

The mine inspector of the middle dis-trict of Luzerne & Co., Pa., reports 488 accidents at the mines in the past year, namely, 204 slight and 196 serious, 88 fatal, making 36 widows and 95 orphans.

The director of the mint at Washington states that there are between five and six

Seventeen vessels and two hundred an nine lives were lost in the Gloucester fisheries during the year just closed. Forty men are known to have left widows and a number of fatherless children, of which there is a record of sixty-eight.

THEIR WORK IN AUSTRALIA.)

What the Brothers Redn

hotel will give 1000 lbs. of beef for the benefit of those in want.

Five shearsmen at Bailey's nail works, Harrisburg, Pa., refused to continue work because the company desired them to pay the wages of two helpers out of their own earnings. As a result the works have been stopped, and about two hundred mer have been thrown out.

Fatal Explosion of Fire Damp.

SCRANTON, Pa., Jan. 3.-An explosio of fire damp occurred at the Oxford colliery of the Delaware Lackawanna and Western Co., in the Hyde park quarter the city this afternoon, tearing ont the lining of the hoisting and new air shafts and cutting in the mine. Within an hoar men decended in the bucket and found all alive. Three were seriously burned, one fatally

STANDER TO It Weighed on His Conscience.

LEAVENWORTH, Ks., Jan. 3.--John Byrne appeared before the United States ner to-day and entered a com plaint against himself for collusion in do frauding the government out of $100 while a member of the Ninth Infantry, U.S.A. $82 clothing money due him and he and the company's clerk raised it to $182. It weighed on his conscience.

Still a Mystery. BIDDEFORD, Me., Jan. 3 .- Dr. Gratton went with the city marshall to-day and inspected the house of ill repute which has ranged to attend the funeral of their late comrade Sergeant Mulligan to-morrow af-ternoon. The regiment will identify any room as that in which he found his mysterious patients. The person who is suspected of keeping the house left town to day, but his whereabouts is known.

A Railway War Impossible New YORK, Jan. 3.-At a meeting of the trunk line passenger agents to-day Asthe trunk line passenger agents to day is-sistant Commissioner Pierson reported that it was probable the remaining two western roads would sign the agreement proposed on Dec. 28. It is thought the establishment of this agreement will make a railroad war impossible.

Thomas' Orchestra.

It is satisfactory to know that the experience of the first visit here of this orchestra, when it suffered considerable financial loss, is not likely to be repeated. The subscription list, which closed recently, is a most satisfactory one, embracing our principal people of note, our best profes-sional and business people, and all our leading professional musicians. The prices of admission, considering the immense expense attending such an engagement, have

7-20.8. Augustin Daly's great comedy, 7-20-8, has only three more performances to run at the Grand opera house, namely, toproduced this season and should be seen by every one capable of enjoying genuine comedy Burglary. The residence of D. Heaslip, 235 Eliza-

the intervention of two flat cars loaded with cinders. The forward passenger car mounted the rear flat car, pushing the two flats along. The passenger cars gradually came to a stop without damage. There were about forty passengers on board, none of whom were injured, and the escape of the baggagemen, trait hands and passen-gers is considered marvelous.

YET ANOTHER G. T. R. SMASH. Three Train Hands Hurt and Two Engine Wrecked.

STEVENSVILLE, Ont., Jan. 3-On the Frand Trunk railway this afternoon about 3 o'clock the engine of the local train No.

10 and train No. 21 collided at Stevensville station. The storm which prevailed durstation. The storm which prevailed dur-ing the day made it impossible for the train men on No. 21 to see the other signal. The engineer and fireman of the local taain were hurt badly. The engineer of No. 21 was also hurt in attempting to jump. Both engines were badly wrecked, and the line was blocked for some hours.

THE ST. LAWRENCE ON THE RISE The Lower Part of the City of Montre

MONTREAL, Jan. 3.-The St. Lawren rose about three feet to-day, and is now causing a great deal of inconvenience in the lower parts of the city. All the manu factories on Mill street have had to stop, their workshops being flooded. About 600 mechanics have been thrown out of employment until the water subsides. The press rooms of the Post newspaper are filled with water and the forms have to go elsewhere. An unknown man disappeared in crossing the canal, and it is feared he lost his life. Any further rise will cause alarm, as the inhabitants in the lower quarters are now driven upstairs.

THE MIDDLEMISS MURDER. onclusion of the Inquest-The Priso

Committed for Trial. LONDON, Jan. 3.-The coroner's jury in the Middlemiss murder case conclude their investigation at a late hour last night. The substance of their verdict was that Grant Silcox came to his death from blows inflicted by Albert E. Wrightman and that James Graham was an accomplice. The prisoners will be held until the spring

Montreal Millinery Store Burned Out MONTREAL, Jan. 3 .-- A fire occurred in foodie's millinery establishment to-day doing $15,000 damage to the stock, which was fully covered in the Queen's London Assurance and the Phœnix.

A Year and One Over for Each Alias. BARRIE, Jan. 3 .- Betsy Miller alias Elizabeth Mortimer alias Arthurs alias Goss alias Piper, a horse thief, was sen-tenced to the penitentiary for five years.

DOMINION DASHES.

The Latest and Best News Found in Ou Canadian Exchanges.

Canadian Exchanges. Acta Victoriana is further enlarged and mproved and is a very creditable college ournal. The Canadian Illustrated News ceased to exist after thirteen years of public service. It has never paid expenses.

Thomas Temple, ex-sheriff, has been selected as the conservative candidate for York, N.B., to fill the place of the late

Mr. Pickard. L. A. Caron of Louisville, Que., sub-nanager there of the Ville Marie bank, is defaulter for $960. The bank has security for the amount. The deaths in Montreal last year were 3766, being an increase as compared with 1882 of 140. Typhoid fever carried of 106 and diphtheria 155.

Sullivan's rescue, and aimed a crushing blow at the saloon man, knocking him down and kicking him in the face. Slade was struck on the head with a brick and was struck on the head with a brick and knocked senseless. All hands then turned upon Sullivan, who, not liking the situation, beat a precipitate retreat. In the melee pistols were brandished but no shots were fired. The police were notified, but owing to a lack of witnesses no arrests were made. Slade was taken to a hotel insensible from the brick blow, but his injuries were only temporary.

emporary. The western division court, met vester day, Judge McDougall presiding, bad WANTED-PROHIBITION.

MURDERERS AND THEIR VICTIMS.

Two Executions on One Day at Newark, For the Benefit of the Sufferers at Proposed Appeal of the Women to the Party Conventions.

The money order department of the pos office paid out $16,300 yesterday. CLEVELAND, Jan. 3 .- The Clevelan omen's christian temperance union is Sylvester Rafferty of 127 Adelaide street west was yesterday arrested on a warran charging him with having assaulted his about to begin another political movement planned by Miss Frances Willard, president of the national union, who recently left here for Chicago, from which point she will superintend similar work through the state and local unions throughout the Mrs. Bull's bankrupt stock of dry goods at Thorold was yesterday sold by Peter Ryan at 66 cents on the dollar, the purwestern states. The proposal is to get one million signatures to a memorial to be presented at the next national convention of each party, asking the insertion of a prohibition plank in their platform. haser being A. C. Sutherland. A building permit was yesterday granted to A Bowman for a pair of semi detached brick dwellings on the south side of Rich-mond street near John, to cost $5000.

Mond street near own, where they are a conditate for alderman in St. David's ward against the ticket composed of the three sitting members. He is independent, and is bound to make a good run. and had ide Wages and Wage Workers. PITTSBURG, Jan. 3 .- Since the locke of the window glass workers occurred son of them have connected themselves with The vice regal party will stay at government house next week. The civic commit-tee will ask for $200 to cover the cost of Lord Lansdowne's reception. The council chamber will be decorated with flowers.<sup>310</sup> co-operative glass works and nine new fac-tories in various parts of the country are ready to begin operations. PITTSBURG, Jan. 3.—The coal miners met in state convention this morning for the purpose of effecting a thorough organi-vation Henry Heafey, a man from Belleville was last night found on the Esphanale very drunk with his hands frost-bitten. <sup>19</sup>He was taken to the central station, where he

The locomotive works of Porter & Bell resumed to-day at a reduction of 10 per was thawed out by Detective Reburn and cent in wages. TROY, Jan. 3—The compositors of the TROY, Jan. 3—The compositors of the Troy Times struck this morning without warning. The Times has been a non-union office for years. The compositors demanded that it be made a union office and put under the control of union rules. The Times was paying more than the union rates and no fault was found with the price. The proprietors, editors and reporters are setting type to-day.

The Editor Treats the Lawyer.

BRIDGETON, N.Y., Jan. 3.-John Chee nan, editor of the N. J. Patriot, and J. L man, editor of the N. J. Patriot, and J. L. Vansickle, a lawyer, was indicted to-day for a breach of the peace, the result of a scuffle a few weeks ago between the two men, when Vansickle attempted to kill Cheeseman on account of an article pub-lished in the Patriot reflecting upon him. Cheeseman escaped a shot from a revolver fired by Vansickle and disarming him gave him a terrible beating. A norse attached to a cutter ran away on Yonge street yesterday afternoon. It brought up against a lamp post at the cor-ner of Queen, the cutter being smashed to pieces. The horse then darted into the yard of the Bay Horse hotel where he was captured. The rig belonged to McCanl & Cayley found the same value in men's, boys and youth's clothing as can be found at Petley's, An Art Exhibition on Sunday. NEW YORK, Jan. 3,-The proceedings their guarantee of satisfaction warranted or money refunded setting at rest any doubts that may exist in the minds of the begun by the secretary of the Sunday closing league against Director Smith of the Bartholdi loan exhibition for opening the exhibition last Sunday have been disnovice in the art of purchasing and the principal of "one price only" to which they strictly adhere is in itself a proof of the straightforward manner of doing busi-ness adopted by this house. nissed. No violation of the law was Death in Lager. ITHACA, N.Y., Jan. 3.-John Kilstro drank lager beer in a saloon here at 8 and died at 10 a.m. Fred. Koffman drank beer in the same saloon at 4 p.m. and is now in a comatose condition without hope of recovery.

ness adopted by this nouse. -Grigg House, London, August 1883. To the Manager Merchants Co.: Dear Sir-I have pleasure in reporting on the merits of "Nonsuch" which has received a thorough trial in my establishment. "Non-such" does all that you claim for it. It thoroughly cleans the clothes without the usual labor and trouble; the washboard is not needed, and boiling and wringing are about all that are necessary to bring out the clothes a beautiful white color. Please soud me one gross for use at my hotel. I am, dear sir, Yours, etc., Samuel Grigg. For sale by all grocers. Lowden & Co., 55 Front street, Agents for Toronto. Snow Slides in Colorado. DENVER, Jan. 3.—Additional snow slide lisasters are reported in the mountains. several cabins have been swept away and six men killed. Two are missing. LOOK OUT FOR FROST BITES.

METEOROLOGICAL OFFICE. TORONTO, Jan. 4, 1 a.m.-Lakes and St. Labrence: Strony winds and gales from the west and north-west; fair, very cold weather with a few local snow flurries. The temperature will fail con-siderably below zero in nearly all localities. Continued cold on Saturday. A Disastrous Bank Failure. ISEPEMING, Mich., Jan. 3.-D. F. Wadsworth & Co., bankers, have as-signed; liabilities $180,000. The deposi-tors will get barely 20 per cent.

ng lady wo uld be a decided a to the convent, as she comes into £2000 a year under her father's will.

the legislative assembly.

Policeman Gregory.

Cayley.

months in the central prison. John B gins, larceny, six months in the central.

A horse attached to a cutter ran away

In no house in this city is there to be

The Algoma Box.

LOCAL NEWS PARAGRAPHED.

nounce a meeting to be held at the Black Lion hotel in Cavan on Jani 16, at which Davitt, O'Brien, Sexton and Biggaro will probably deliver addresses. A similar meeting is announced at Boyle on Jan. 20 The orangemen say they will oppose the holding of the meetings. A box arrived down vesterday contain ing all the papers of the Algoma election, ballot papers, voters' lists, etc. The box is in the custody of Col. Gillmour, clerk of od of A Suggestion from Japan itase BERLIN, Janin 34 The government has

DUBLEN, Jan. 3. - The nationalists an-

The plasterers have been on strike three orwarded a favorable reply to the proposal of the government of Japan that it should stablish courts of justice to have jurisdiction over foreigners as well as natives. It is understood the United States has given not have too many for a longitude to come of Ramifications of the Nintists.

ST. PETEKSBURG, Jan. 3. The papers found at the residence of Col. Sudeiker inthude voluminous correspondence felating to the nihilists plots, wherein Russians re-siding in London, Paris, and Geneva are annot have too many. One

I BTHE OLD WORLD IN BRIEF.

Tablouski and two others have been ar-sted at St. Petersburg for the murder f Sudrkin.

Carrier, the Alsatian who attempted to shoot the French minister, has been sen-teneed to three months' imprisonment. The French government proposes to sell he state railways. It is believed the Rothschilds have offered 420 millions of france for them

At a meeting of eight hundred striking abl drivers in Paris yesterday it was unanimously decided to continue, the strike until the masters accepted the drivers' terms. Twelve hundred men are ow on strike, and it is expected the umber will reach two thousand Policeman Gregory. The council yesterday passed a resolu-tion of condolence with the family of the late Mr. John Bugg, who was an alderman of the city for many years. The resolution was moved by Ald. Irwin, and spoken to by Ald. Baxter and the mayor. Judge Boyd held a session of the crim-inal court yesterday. James Wran, lar-ceny at Markham, remanded until Thurs-day next. Harry Hill, feloniously as-saulting Jane McFarlane at Brockton, three months in the central prison. John Big-It is stated that the secretary of the Exibitors' protection association has re-uested Lord Granville and Sir W. Harquested Lord Granville and Sir W. Har-court to receive a deputation from exhibi-tors who complain of injustice and harsh treatment in connection with the late fish-eries exhibition. The matter, it is added, will be brought before parliament if nec-cessary.

All Sorts.

He blew into his gun to see If loading up it needed; The jury ic aman agree The gun blew after he did "Pa, what is poetic license?" "Well, my boy, as "nearly as I can learn, poetic license is something which enables a man to say things in verse which would incar-of at a political meeting." "What time does the 3:20 train start?" demanded an excited female, waving her values at a bashful young clerk on one of our business streets the other afternoon.

And the young man was so embarased that he blushed up to his eyes and meekly stammered, "Three-twenty, ma'am," stammered, "Inree twenty, ma am." "My son," asked a school teachar "what do you know of the proverb regard ing people who reside in glass houses." "I don't know nothin?" was the response, "about the proverb, but I know that people who live in glass houses ortent to iay abed in the mornin' unless they pull down the blinds."

Clerk-"Prisoner at the bar, are vor Clerks "Prisoner at the bar, are your guilty of not guilty?" Prisoner "Not guilty." Judge ' Who is your counsel?" Prisoner ' I have none. I am unable to employ a lawyer." Judge '' Mr. B I appoint you to defend this man." Pris-oner (after looking at his lawyer." Well, then, I plead guilty."

Jan 3 - Canada ... New Yor ... London Jan 3 - California Mertile ... New York Jan 3 - Bohemia ... Piymouth ... New York New York Jan 3 - Nothing further kas been heard of the Celtic, SAFE OVER THE SEA.

Steamship. Reported at. From.

