

EXPLANATION OF PLATE XI

••• Cross-hatchure indicates black vertical hatchure red horizontal blue dots orange white natural color of wood except in cases where the whole mask is black

- Fig. 1 — Mask representing the thunder bird (front and profile) Black, red Height 11½ inches Cat No 1441
- Fig. 2 — Mask representing Atxulatinum (front and profile) Ornamented with red cedar-bark Orange blue Height 12 inches Cat No 144
- Fig. 3 — Mask representing the rabbit Set with mountain goat skin Natural color black Height, 13 inches Cat No 1424
- Fig. 4 — Mask representing the owl Black red Height, 12 inches Cat No 1411
- Fig. 5 — Mask representing 10 jots (the mountain) Natural color black Height 19½ inches Cat No 1448
- Fig. 6 — Mask representing the rindrop On top of the mask is a long switch set with feathers, only the lower part of which is shown Natural color black Height, 10 inches Cat No 1410
- Fig. 7 — Bird-shaped implement worn by a companion of the thunder-bird It is filled with eagle-down During the dance it is shaken and the down flies out of the holes in the lower part of the implement and from the back Length 18 inches Cat No 1442
- Fig. 8 — Mask representing the sea monster Kilyti Red, blue black Height 19 inches Cat No 1412
- Fig. 9 — Mask representing the spirit tuman Black orange set with bear skin Height 9 inches Cat No 1411
- Fig. 10 — Mask representing the hermaphrodite (front and profile) Natural color red black Height 14 inches Cat No 1411