Conference

To the Moderator of the Synod of the Presbyterian Church of the Lower Provinces of British America.

Letter from

REVEREND AND DEAR SIR,—

The Conference of the Wesleyan Church of Eastern British America hails with pleasure this auspicious opportunity of evincing our essential unity in Christ Jesus, the only foundation and living Head of the Church of God, and in accordance with your polite and cordial overture has appointed as a deputation to wait upon your Reverend body, the Rev. T. H. Davies, Co-delegate of our Conference, the Rev. James R. Narraway, A.M., and the Rev. John Brewster, who will convey to you our fraternal regards.

The Conference will have great pleasure in receiving any deputation or communications from your Synod in return.

By order, and on behalf of the Conference.

JOHN McMURRAY, Secretary of the Conference.

Charlotte Town, 26th June, 1863.

On the invitation of the Moderator, these brethren severally addressed the Synod, expressing the friendly feelings, and christian good wishes of that body towards this Synod, and were responded to in similar terms by the Moderator, and other members of Synod, whereupon it was agreed unanimously,

Addresses by Deputation.

That the Synod record their heartfelt pleasure, in welcoming among them their brethren representing the Wesleyan Conference of Eastern British America, and in receiving the Christian salutations of the body, which they represent, and rejoice in the opportunity of cordially reciprocating these expressions of Christian respect and affection.

Synod's Resolution.
