Is Growing Fast, and There Is a Reason—

We aim to give satisfaction by making your interest our interest.
Two letters we have just received tell the reason.

WM. BRIGGS, ESQ.

Lobo, February 1st, 1906.

Toronto, Ont.

Dear Sir,—I cannot too highly recommend the books sent me. The illustrations are especially good and add greatly to the attractiveness of the books—well as to the interest of the pupils.

I had not at such a varied and valuable collection of books could be purchased with so little money. I could not wish for more liberal terms than I received from you. I would advise anyone who has a few dollars to invest in books for school libraries to get a copy of your catalogue and the rest can be safely entrusted to you to look after satisfactorily.

Sincerely yours,

GEORGE F. COPELAND.

Dear Sir—I received the library books yesterday, and am much pleased with them, and with the prompt way in which you filled the order.

Yours respectfully

LAURA SHANNON.

The Making of a Teacher

367 pages

A Contribution to Some Phases of the Problem of Religious Education

$1.00 postpaid

By MARTIN G. BRUMBAUGH, Ph.D., LL.D.
Professor of Pedagogy in the University of Pennsylvania

THIS book, dealing as it does with the subject of the better training of the Sunday school teacher, finds a fertile field awaiting its wholesome truths. One after another each basic principle of pedagogy is stated, discussed, illustrated and applied. It is truly a contribution to the era of better teachers, for thoughtful teachers everywhere are seeking to improve their work.

DR. F. N. PELLOURET SAYS:

"I shall want to be in a class that takes for its text-book Professor Brumbaugh's Making of a Teacher. . . . I wish every Sunday school in the world would this winter use it as a text-book."
