The Card Party.

The card party in the private parlor may be but a harmless evening diversion to the young lady who gives it, an innocent refuge for the emptiness and stupidity which can not converse because it will not take the trouble to think, but to some of her guests be fatal food for a passion which grows to an insanity not second to the appetite for strong drink, and which its victim will gratify at any cost. The whole interest of a game of cards, in the parlor or the saloon, turns upon the chance involved, whether it be the mere delight of winning or the more substantial stake, and what essential difference is there between playing for five dollars in a saloon and playing in the parlor for the prize bought with five dollars? Do you say, a difference in the demoralizing surroundings? But the passion acquired and encouraged in the one case has led many a young man to the other.—The Golden Rule.

The Highest Expression of Joy.

Jesus Christ calls you to happiness—not through self-indulgence, but through self-sacrifice. The cross that He bears, He bids you bear; the sufferings He took for love's sake He lays on you, or asks you, rather, to lay upon yourself. There is higher happiness than indulgence in self; it is sacrifice of self for the sake of love. Is there any happiness in this world of ours like the delicious happiness of a mother? Is there any sorrow in this world of ours like the exquisite sorrow of a mother? In this strange symphony of our human life, the minor and the major keys are twined together, and life passes from one to the other with transition so rapid as to be bewildering. Did you ever think that the highest expression of joy is a tear, and the highest expression of sorrow is a tear?—REV. DR. LYMAN ABBOTT.
