Grand Secrétaire.

Roses grow on briars, say the wise men of the world. Yes; but it is a truer truth that briars bloom with roses. If roses have thorns, thorns have roses.—Father Faber.

You can make the clock strike before the hour by putting your own hands on it, but it will strike wrong. You can tear the rosebud open before its time, but you mar the beauty of the rose. So we may spoil many a gift or blessing which God is preparing for us by our own eager haste.

"Why do not young people read what is profitable? They are rarely told what is proper or taken in the right way. But nothing is easier to a discreet person than to interest a young mind in reading, nothing more beautifully doctile than that mind when properly directed, and nothing, perhaps, has so powerful an influence on the formation of a young mind and character as its early reading."—Rev. J. F. N. Connor, S. J. (in Reading and the Mind).
