IRELAND, UELL'AND, UELL'AND, A number of out-litheadistic scenes were witnessed at the ovening service in 8t George's church for Sunday, Jan. 20th. It appears that a number of worshippers kept their sents instead of standing up what the Palins were being chanted, and five of these having been elected from the church, a considerable section of the congregation beam chrothening. A large police force faving, however, been hustily breaght on the seems, order was restored, and service continued.

The working of the Laborers Acts since their inception has proved a source of endless expense to the local authorities, and it is safe to say that this typense has been enormously increased by the determined opposition which the Act has received from owners and occupiers of land. A case in point was mentioned at the needing of the Mountmelliok District Council no. Saturday last. Some yearn ago a cottage was proposed to be erected on Saturday last. Some yearn ago a cottage was proposed to be rected on the lands of a Mr. L. Culleton at Drummond. Mr. Culleton gave it all the opposition in his power, but notwithstanding his efforts the cottage was proposed to be rected on Privy Council. So far the expenses were those of any ordinary opposed schume, but Mr. Culleton had more of the opposite game in store. The Arbitor awarded in the the money. He also refused to take the money.
