PRESENTATION AND ADDRESS.

A VERY pleasant event took place at the G. T. R. Round-house, York, at the noon hour on August 17th, the occasion being an address and presentation of a gold locket and chain to Mr. Henry Hare, who was one of the heroes at Batoche. The presentation was made by Mr. Pickering, Locomotive

Foreman, and the following is the address:—

"Mr. Henry Hare I have the honour of presenting you with this gold locket and chain on behalf of your fellow workmen in this shop, who have chosen this method of showing their esteem and respectful regards toward you; and we are greatly pleased, and proud to know that one among us went through the hardships and hazards of a soldiers' life on active service during the suppression of the North West Rebellion.

"We wish you success, long life and happiness; and in the distant future when time has somewhat erased the doings of to-day from your memory, we hope that a glimpse at this locket will recall to your mind the present happy moments of the familiar faces of your friends around."

PREPARE TO MEET THY GOD.

IN the G. T. R. Yard at York on Sunday August 16th, Brakeman J. Walker was run over by a shunting engine, and was severely injured. He died about three hours afterwards. My dear fellow railway men, just think for one
