existing between the two armies, although unfortunately accident had rendered the attainment of their respective objects impossible for the moment. Each party of the assailants maintained its reputation for disregard of death and for thirst of glory. The French lost their brave leaders, Generals Burnet and Mayran, both mortally wounded at the head of their respective divisions, but still their men fought as such men only can fight. The English attack was commanded by an officer who, in the very trying cam- and it proved so effectual in the expulsion of worms, paigns of the Cape of Good Hope had—like poor that no other preparation will satisfy the citizens of this Cathcart-won golden opinions by his skilful conduct and his quiet, modest, retiring, yet daring, dashing, bearing, (if terms apparently at variance can be used in describing him.) in a word, Gen. A Brave Guardsman's Use of his Mother's Letters.—Joshua Priestly, of the Grenadier Guards, has written home to his parents, at Sollhill, Ovendon, an interesting letter, which, after being well thumbed, has been handed to us, and from which we can hardly refrain from making one or two extracts, notwithstanding the note at the end, that the letter was not to be published, as the writer had no time to write with well-being Bridge and Joseph Water, a tank in the Cellar for rain water, a Garden, Stables, Sheds, &c.

It is pleasantly situated near the new Victoria Bridge, now in course of crection near the Public Works on the Ganal, and is most admirably situated for a Comfortable Residence or a respectable Private Bonding House.

After refering to the loss of one of his comrades who was known to his parents, and who was carried off by cholera after a twelve homs' illness, and the fruitless inquiries he had made respecting another friend, the writer remarked that he had some money treasured up for his parents, which it was unsafe to send in a letter; and with respect to the epistles he had received from his mother, says :- "I don't want to see any more crying letters come to the Crimea from you. Those that I have received I have put into my rifle after loading it, and have fired them at the Russians, because you appear to have a strong dislike to them. If you had seen as many killed as I have you would not have as many weak ideas as you have; besides being present when the shot, shell, and musketry were flying past and ringing around you, bursting and killing hundreds on your right hand and on your left, and yourself kept firing until the sweat streamed from you. He then states that on the 18th of June, in the attempted storming of Sebastopol, his rifte was struck from his hand by a piece of shell, and it cut his high. MEXICO. - ABDICATION OF SANTA ANNA. - A private letter from Acapulco, July 2, states that Gen. Santa Anna had resigned the Presidency, and that Messrs. Alvarez and Commonfort, with 30,000 men, had marched on the capital. The time of our agenies is nearly passed. After sixteen months of struggle, the Alvarez party has finally obtained so signal victories that the whole Republic is on the point of joining his standard .- Alta California.

PROGRESS OF MORMONISM. - Twenty-five years ago the "Prophet" Joseph Smith organized the Mormon Church with six members. At the present time the Church in Utah Territory contains three presidents, seven apostles, two thousand and twenty-six "seventies," seven hundred and fifteen high priests, nine hundred and ninety-four elders, five hundred and fourteen priests, four hundred and seventy-one teachers, two hundred and twenty-seven deacons, besides the usual ratio of persons in training for the ministry but not yet ordained, and four hundred and eighty-nine missionaries abroad. During the six months ending with the beginning of April last, nine hundred and sixty five children were born in the territory of Ulah, two hundred and seventy eight persons died, four hundred and seventy nine were baptized in the Mormon faith, and eighty-six were excommunicated from the church.

ANECDOTE OF GENERAL LEE. - When the General was a prisoner at Albany, he dined with an Irishman. Before entering upon the wine, the General remarked to his host that, after drinking, he was very apt to July 1855. abuse Irishmen, for which he hoped his host would excuse him in advance. "By my soul, General, I will do that," said his host, "if you will excuse a trifling fault which I have myself. It is this—whenever I hear a man abusing Ireland, I have a sad fault of cracking his sconce with my shillelagh." The General was givil during the whole everile. General was civil during the whole evening.

A Good Joke.—The city authorities of Marysville, California, recently passed an ordinance for the removal of outside stairs in that city. While the Council were in session a few days after, the stairs leading down to the council chamber were removed, and the dignified members of that body, according to the Herald, were compelled to shin down the posts of the SALE OF DR. M'LANE'S VERMIFUGE.

Among the hundreds of letters, certificates and orders received by the proprietors of this medicine, the following are selected to show its character, and the effect of its use in a distant part of the West.

PROSPECTUS

ST. JOHN'S COLLEGE, FORDHAM, WESTCHESTER COUNTY, N.Y.

THIS Institution is incorporated with the privilege of a Uni-THIS Institution is incorporated with the privilege of a University, and is conducted by the Fathers of the Society of Jesus. It is situated at Fordham, in a most picturesque and healthy part of the County of Westchester, eleven miles distant from the City of New York and three from Harlemvery easy of approach at all seasons, either by private conveyance or by the railway, which lies along the foot of the beautiful lawn in front of the College.

The grounds are extensive, and well laid out for College meroses.

The fathers, desirous of bestowing the most conscientious care upon the domestic comfort of the pupils, have deputed to this important and highly responsible department persons of tried skill, whose training and experience fit them for the peculiar wants of an institution which purports to be one large family. The students are in three distinct divisions—the senior, the middle, and the junior—each having its separate halls and separate play-grounds, and each presided over by distinct officers and professors.

The system of government being paternal, the observance

The system of government being paternal, the observance of established discipline is obtained by the mild, persuasive, yet firm means of rightly understood parental authority.

Letters from or to students, not known to be from or to parents, are subject to inspection. Books, papers, periodicals, are not allowed circulation among the students without having previously been submitted to authority. The students are not allowed to go beyond the college precincts unless accompanied by their professors or Visits of students to the city are not sanctioned except for such as have their parents residing in the city; and the interests of the studies, as well as those of the moral training, are tound not to warrant their frequency over once in three found not to warrant their frequency over once in three months. Even students not having their parents in New York may sometimes be furnished the means of visiting the city. But for no case of such absence from college will permission be granted except at the express wish of the parents or gnardians, and for the reasons submitted to the president.

There will be a recess of one week at Christmas, but none ties; Natural, Intellectual and Moral Philosophy.

There are two semi-annual examinations: the first towards the end of January, the second before the annual commencement towards the middle of July.

At any time during the year, and especially at the first examination, it any one be found worthy of passing up to a higher class he will be promoted; and such promotion shall be held equivalent to the honors of the class from which he passed up. Candidates for the degree of Bachelor of Arts are required to undergo an examination in Natural, Intellectual and Moral Philosophy, and in Mathematics, before the faculty of the University. They must, besides, have given evidences of their progress in the Greek and Latin languages and in literature.

Candidates for the degree of Master of Arts must, for the space of two years, have creditably pursued some liberal and learned profession.

When it is the wish of parents or guardians to have sons or wards litted for commercial pursuits, means are taken to direct and adapt their studies accordingly. There are two preparatory classes, in which beginners are taught spelling, reading, writing, the first elements of English Grammar, of Geography, and Arithmetic.

The German and Spanish languages are taught, if required, but together with music, drawing, and other similar necomplishments, form extra charges. Twice a week there is a gratuitous lesson of vocal music for the beginners of the preparatory classes.

The Collegiate year commences on the first Monday of September, and ends about the 15th of July, with a public exhibition and distribution of premiums.

TERMS:

Board, Tunion, and Use of Bedding, per Annum, payable half-yearly in advance, Washing and Mending of Linen, Physician's Fees, $200

N.B.-1. There is an additional charge of $15 for students remaining during the summer vacation.

2. For a few years past, owing to the high price of every kind of provisions, it was found necessary to call on the parents for the additional charge of $20. This transitory measure, however, is not likely to be kept up unless on account of the pressure of the hard times and with the agreement of the pressure.

Book, stationery, clothes, linen, &c., are also furnished by the College at current prices, or may be procured by the parents or guardians residing in the city. Each student, on entering, must be provided with three suits for summer and three for winter; with at least six shirts, six pairs of woollen and six pairs of cotton socks, six pocket handkerchiefs, six towels, four cravats, four pairs of shoes or boots, one pair of overshoes, a cloak or overcoat; a silver spoon, a silver fork, and a silver drinking cup, marked with his name.

No advances are made by the institution for articles of clothing, or for any similar expenses, unless an equivalent sum be deposited in the hands of the treasurer of the College.

With regard to packet-money, it is desirable that parents With regard to pocket-money, it is desirable that parents should allow their sons no more than a moderate sum, and that this be left with the treasurer of the College, to be given
