SECURITY ABOVE ALL

Whether with the intention of taking out insurance or associating yourself as representative with some company, you first look for security.

The figures for 1918 emphasize the unexcelled financial position of the North American Life. After a year of War and Pestilence, the Company emerges stronger than ever, meriting its motto, "Solid as the Continent."

THE KEYSTONE OF THE ARCH

Nothing known in building is stronger than the arch—The symbol of the Mutual Principle in Life Insurance. The centre of the arch is the keystone—and "The Keystone of a Life Insurance Organization," says W. O. Chapman, "is management." The three leading constituents in good management are INTEGRITY, ECONOMY and EFFICIENCY. It is well known that the secret of the extraordinary success of the Mutual Life of Canada has been the rigid adherence of managers and directors through fifty years of history to these essential things. It is due to these that in spite of more than four years of devastating war, followed by a blighting pestilence, with the immense losses entailed, yet the strength of the Mutual Life of Canada is unshaken. The keystone ensures the solidity of the organization, and there is no other better qualified to defy the tooth of time than—

USE FORESIGHT

The time to prepare for a rainy day is when the weather is fine.

That is a truism. Yet many a person that would never for a moment dispute so obvious a piece of common-sense forgets that the time to prepare for a financial "rainy day" is NOW, and that the way to do so is by means of Life Insurance. To the great majority Insurance offers the only way within their reach of taking care of the future—not only the future of dependent ones but their own as well.

The Great-West Policies provide such Insurance on exceedingly attractive terms. Premium rates are low and profit returns are remarkable. Personal rates and full explanations will be gladly given on request. State age.
