A TOO SHORT VACATION. A Complimentary Volume. Rochester: The Eastman Company.

One of the most elegant things in the way of an advertisement ever brought to our notice, lies before us, in the shape of a handsomely bound volume entitled "A Too Short Vacation." It comes from the Eastman Company and contains a delicately underlined reference to their popular Kodak, covered very acceptably by a story describing a three months' trip of some Philadelphia girls through the "Old Country." The girls have with them that almost indispensable adjunct to travelling nowadays—a Kodak—and the 264 pages contain forty-eight illustrations made with the Kodak during the trip, besides a brightly written account of their ramble and an appendix of many valuable hints to Continental travellers.

We have received from the Eastman Kodak Company, a souvenir of the visit of President Harrison and party to their new film works, at Kodak Park, last Memorial day. It is an 8 x 10 photo of the entire party, and is an interesting picture, as there have probably never before been so many famous statesmen photographed together.

We have received a gracefully posed cabinet photo of a little girl sitting on a huge log with a puppy by her side, the operating, developing and retouching of which was done by Miss Kate Leary, of St. Mary's. The lighting, posing and effect of the picture does Miss Kate great credit. In fact, it would be a credit to most of our gentlemen operators.

Mr. Mulholland Married.

On June 7th, at the residence of the bride's parents, at Hillside, Eglinton, Mr. Frederick Mulholland, of the well-known firm of Mulholland & Sharpe, was united in marriage to Miss Evelyn, the only daughter of Mr. E. H. Badgerow, Rev. Wm. Patterson, of Cooke's Church, officiating. The bridesmaids were Miss Lillian Mulholland and Miss Hattie Latter, the groomsmen being Mr. George and Fredrick Badgerow. Mr. and Mrs. Mulholland left after the ceremony for an extended trip through the United States. On their return they will find an elegant new residence furnished and waiting for them at No. 6 Howard street. The presents were numerous and appropriate, among them being the only jewel ornament worn by the bride, consisting of a handsome diamond pin, the gift of the groom. The guests included most of the notable names of the city.

W. Ross Mair, of Spadina avenue, this city, has taken possession of his new and attractive studio at 436 Spadina avenue, occupying the entire building at that number. The reception rooms and office are on the ground floor, dressing rooms and a well-lighted operating room on the next. West-enders should show their appreciation of Mr. Mair's efforts in providing for them one of the most complete galleries of the city by an increased patronage.

The well-known American "Aristo" is gaining in favor every day in the States, and new users are constantly coming into line. The manipulation has been so much simplified since the introduction of the hot water process that this is not to be wondered at, when the beauty of the result is taken into consideration.

The two half-tones in this issue are the work of Mr. Walsh and Mr. Bethune, of the Toronto Club, and are very pleasing to look upon.
