

ARTICLE 2

The status of British Armed Forces personnel shall be governed by the terms of the Agreement between the Parties to the North Atlantic Treaty Regarding the Status of their Forces ("the NATO SOFA"), dated 19 June 1951, as supplemented by Article 8 of this Agreement.

ARTICLE 3

The Canadian Forces shall exercise command and control over base and training facilities used by the British Armed Forces. Training shall be conducted in accordance with Canadian laws and regulations, Canada's obligations under international law, and the written orders and directives of the Department of National Defence of Canada and the Canadian Forces. Subject to the foregoing, training shall be governed by the relevant regulations of the British Armed Forces.

ARTICLE 4

1. The British Armed Forces shall respect Canadian laws and regulations applicable to the Canadian Forces with regard to the protection of the environment.
2. The British Armed Forces shall respect the written orders and directives of the Department of National Defence of Canada and the Canadian Forces with regard to environmental protection. Exceptions to this shall be included in a Memorandum of Understanding or other written arrangement made under Article 9 of this Agreement.

ARTICLE 5

1. The Canadian Forces shall act as the agent for the British Armed Forces for the provision of all goods, services and facilities to be either supplied in Canada or procured through Canadian sources in support of British Armed Forces' training in Canada during the period of this Agreement with the exception of such goods, services and facilities as may be excluded by the terms of any separate arrangement made under Article 9 of this Agreement. As agent, and after consultation with the British Armed Forces, the Canadian Forces shall arrange for the procurement of goods, services and facilities from commercial or government sources at a scale and standard no greater than required to provide adequate and economical support and all in accordance with the procedures, terms and conditions applicable to such procurement and construction for the Canadian Forces.
