

2. If the dispute cannot be resolved within a period of six months following the start of direct negotiations, it shall be submitted to an arbitral tribunal whose composition and procedures shall be determined by agreement between the Governments of the Parties. The arbitral tribunal shall resolve the dispute in accordance with the fundamental principles and spirit of this Convention. The decisions of the arbitral tribunal shall be final and binding.

ARTICLE 24

Understandings with a Province of Canada

The relevant competent authorities of the Kingdom of Morocco and a province of Canada may conclude understandings concerning any social security matter within provincial jurisdiction in Canada in so far as those understandings are not inconsistent with the provisions of this Convention.
