[Mr. Speaker.]

Mr. Speaker: I declare the amendment to the amendment to the main motion lost. Is the house ready for the question?

Mr. Fulton: Just before you put the question, Mr. Speaker, I think it might be appropriate to observe under the circumstances of this evening that the residual effects of some of those hard facts about which we have read lately appear to have affected the judgment of some of my hon. friends opposite.

The house divided on the amendment (Mrs. Fairclough) which was negated on the following division:
