

Borrowing Authority Act

know how they are administering it. What are their views? What do they intend to do? What are their projections?

We in the New Democratic Party have done constructive things.

Some Hon. Members: Oh, oh!

Mr. Rodriguez: I remind the Hon. Member for Lévis (Mr. Fontaine) that since the fall of 1984 we produced a document called Canada Unlimited. That document is composed of opinion and thoughtful analyses of the economic situation. It contains very concrete and specific proposals in respect of dealing with Canada's most serious problem—unemployment. Then we put a youth task force on the road and produced a positive document which makes recommendations to the Government. There was Tax Probe 86 in which we made some concrete proposals to the Government about a more fair, just and distributive income tax system. They sit on their fins and what do they say? They say that they believe in the private sector. I think they have all gone to kindergarten and have repeated that the private sector is the engine of the economy. I think they have been programmed to spit that out. The people of the country will remember in the next election, and they will be spat right out.

Mr. Deputy Speaker: Is the House ready for the question?

Some Hon. Members: Question.

Mr. Deputy Speaker: Mrs. McDougall, seconded by Mr. Hnatyshyn, moves that Bill C-99, an Act to provide borrowing authority, be read the third time and passed. Is it the pleasure of the House to adopt the motion?

Some Hon. Members: Agreed.

Mr. Benjamin: On division.

Motion agreed to, Bill read the third time and passed.

Some Hon. Members: Five o'clock.

Mr. Deputy Speaker: It being five o'clock, the House stands adjourned until Monday, April 14, at 11 o'clock a.m., pursuant to Standing Order 3(1).

The House adjourned at 4.59 p.m.
