Dear Mr. Ridington:-

I have but the briefest moment to acknowledge your very kind letter of the 16th of December with reference to our McGill Honour Roll. I am leaving very shortly to spend Christmas at my old home in western Ontario.

Many, many times my thoughts go back to the years that I lived on the Pacific.

Thank you very, very much for what you have said about the book and also for other sentiments beautifully expressed.

Yours faithfully,

Principal.
