

The author cannot close these prefatory observations without imploring, on behalf of the lonely widow and the fatherless children, the consolations of that religion which supported their beloved relative in his last trying hour. His GOD is their GOD forever and ever. He will be their GUIDE even unto death.

MONTREAL, November, 1852.