MIDDLETON,

Lies north or back of Houghton and Walsingham. In this township there are many plains and natural meadows—well watered, rich and clear of stone, though as yet without improvement. Big Creek flows through the township, on the banks of which is a sulphurous spring of great strength.

WINDHAM,

Joins Middleton on the east, and Charlotteville and Woodhouse on the north. It is partly plain and partly timbered land, very rich, clear of stone, well watered, and tolerably thick settled with a civil and industrious people from the United States.

Unimproved land sells cheap here—from one and a half to three dollars an acre.

It contains 2 shoemakers, 2 tailors, 3 weavers, 2 joiners, 1 mason, 1 tanner, 1 hatter, 1 store, 2 schools, 2 religious societies (one congregationalist and one methodist) 1 circulating library, and one divine (congregationalist.)

TOWNSEND.

This township joins Windham on the east and Woodhouse and Rainham on the north, is chiefly rich natural plains, which are beautifully interspersed with groves of timber, level, well watered and clear of stone. It is thickly settled with rich farmers, who raise great quantities of grain and cattle.

Townsend contains 4 grist mills in two places, 3 saw mills, 3 blacksmiths, 3 distilleries, 2 tanners, 4 shoe-makers, 2 weavers, 4 joiners, 1 hatter, 1 ma-
