

The British Columbia Indian Land
Question from a Canadian
Point of View

LORD DUFFERIN'S VIEW

"Now, we must all admit that the condition of the Indian question in British Columbia is not satisfactory. Most unfortunately, as I think, there has been an initial error, ever since Sir James Douglas quitted office, in the Government of British Columbia neglecting to recognize what is known as the Indian title."

LORD DUFFERIN,

Governor General of Canada,
at Victoria, September, 1876
