

- European Authors, ancient and modern, short selections from, 85-87; 178-180; 211-213.
- Everett, Hon. E., on the effects of Knowledge and Ignorance, 106.
- Expense of Education and Crime compared, 211, 212; 356-361.
- F
- Farmers, duties of, to educate their Sons, 89; their Daughters, 267; importance of Education to, 257-268; 331.
- Female Education, 31; Department of, in the Normal School, 91; Farmers' Wives and Daughters, importance of, to, 267.
- First Impressions on the minds of Children, 176-178.
- Foundation of the Canadian School System, explanatory remarks on, 2, 3; 33-35.
- Free People, importance of Education to a, 289-301.
- Free School System, of the New-England States, 97-103; in the principal Cities and Towns of the United States, 121-125; example of, in Niagara District, 156; in the State of Indiana and in Buffalo, N. Y., 219; in the City of Natchez, 285; in the State of Louisiana, 286.
- Free Schools, effect of, on the value of Property, 183; Public Meeting in the London District, in favor of, 221, 222; best hope of a country, 237.
- Fund, Common School, and its expenditure, 25; convenient modes of paying, to Teachers, 56.
- G
- Galt, examination of School in, 148.
- Galveston, (Texas), Free Schools in, 124.
- Geography, how to teach and learn, 231, 234.
- Globe, epodes and changes on the surface of, 275.
- Goethe on Self-Education, 139.
- Good Common Schools, two essentials of, 181.
- Good, Dr. Mason, on the connexion between Ignorance and Vice, 196.
- Good Manners, importance of, 334, 335.
- Good Teacher, how to be procured and retained, 74, 75.
- Gore District Council, proceedings of, noticed, 62.
- Government, Forms of, not to be confounded with Systems of Education, 65.
- Governor-General (Lord Elgin) quoted, 338.
- H
- Hall, Rev. R., quoted, 198.
- Hamilton, School-houses in the City of, 121; examination of Mr. Fenton's School in, 149; Schools in, 286.
- Health, laws of, should be taught to Pupils, 335.
- Hierocles on true Virtue, 180.
- Holidays and Vacations in Com. Schools, authorized according to law, 349.
- Home District Council, proceedings of, in respect to building School-houses, altering School Sections, and requiring the School assessment to be paid before the end of each year, 60-62.
- Hooker, on Education, 179; quoted, 292.
- Huron District Council, recommends the National School Books, 91.
- I
- Ignorance, cost of, 356-361.
- Importance of selecting good Teachers, 87; of good Common Schools, 90; 207; of the character of, 214; of educating the children of poor parents, 214; of educating the Farmer, 381; of Physical Education, 336.
- Impressions, first, 176.
- Industry, 248.
- Influence of a clean School-house, 245.
- Inspection of Schools, City and Town, 23; District, 77; 127.
- Inspection of Common Schools by T. J. Robertson, Esquire, Head Master of the Provincial Normal School, 129-135.
- Institutes, Teachers, their objects and utility, 202-205; remarks on, by Governor Briggs, 207; by Journal of Education, 217-219.
- Intellect, 63.
- Ireland, copious extracts from the Report of National Schools in, for 1847, 279-284.
- J
- Johnson, Dr., on value of time, 178; on the business of education, 180.
- Journal of Education*, for U. C. objects, 1-4; appeal in behalf of, 184, 185; 287; 370; London Quarterly, on the Free School System, 97-103.
- Journals of Education in the United States, 185, 186; difficulties of sustaining, ib.
- K
- Kind of Schools which the country wants, 181; 212.
- Kind words, 333.
- Kindness, power of, 247.
- Knowledge, value of, and its opposition to slavery, 225-228.
- L
- Labor, nobility of, 368.
- Lamartine's Education, 332.
- Laws, Common School, of U. C., 26, 36-45; of New-York, extracts from 47, 54, 66-70, 76; Massachusetts, 51, 52, 68; Rhode Island, 53; Michigan, 71; results of first year's operations of C. S. Law in U. C., 92-94; Law and Regulations for Trustees and Teachers in U. C., 339-352.
- Letter of the Chief Superintendent of Schools to the Provincial Secretary,