
HENRY ELLIS of Lawrence Lane, Cheapside, London, Gentleman, and late Agent for the North-west Committee on an Expedition for the Discovery of a North-west Passage through Hudson's Bay to the Western and Southern Ocean of America, maketh Oath, and saith, That he this Deponent went out on board the Dobbs Galley in May, 1746, upon an Expedition for the Discovery of the said Passage; and that this Deponent's chief Business was to assist with his Observations and Endeavours to promote and perfect the same Discovery. And this Deponent further saith, That whilst the said Ship was so employ'd, he, this Deponent, landed at the several Places hereafter mention'd, where he assisted in making Trials of the Circumstances attending the Tides (that is to say) at Knight's Island in Latitude 62° North, at Nevil's Bay in 62° , 12 North; to the Westward of Whale Cove in Latitude 62° 27; at Corbet's Inlet in 62° 47; at Marble Island in 62° , 55; at Cape Fry in 64° , 32; at an Island in about Latitude 65° 6; at Wager's Bay above three Degrees of Longitude, by Computation farther Westward than any of Captain Middleton's People, or any other Europeans that this Deponent ever heard of, had been before; at Douglas Harbour in the same Bay, and several other Places, as also on the East Side of the Welcome near Cape Veteran. And upon the whole of these Trials, this Deponent found the following Facts appear, viz. That the Flood Tide came from the Northward the Course of the Coast; and that the time of Full Sea or High Water at Cape Fry
