

By this Time Mr. Shirley had near com-^{1755,} pleted his own Regiment, as also the two ^{Mar. 13.} New England Battaillons of 1000 each, destin'd for the Service of Nova Scotia; and having received Intelligence in the Summer preceeding, that the French design'd to build a new Fort, and extend their Encroachments at Crown Point, and being of Opinion that the Expedition for driving the French of Canada one on against the French in that Quarter with upwards of 4000 Men, and particnlarly recommended the engaging the Indians of the Six Nations in it, and that Colonel Johnson, as he had a considerable Influence over them, should be Commander in Chief of the Expedition; and upon this Occasion he recommended to the Government of Pensilvania, which had then some religious Scruples against raising Troops, to contribute their Quota of the Expence of this Expedition in Provisions; all which was comply'd with.

Mr. Shirley received a Letter from Sir Tho- Mar. 14.

 neral Braddock* would soon arrive in Virginia with two Regiments under his Command, and directing him, upon his being notified by Mr.
