

height of their value, it is certain that there is no great probability of any considerable increase in their improvement; while that of America is rising, and will continue to advance for many years to come, in a rapid progression, hitherto unknown in any country. yes, a very great growth!

The value of the exports, l. s. d.
from England to North

America, was, in 1763,	1,867,285	6	2
In 1771, - -	4,586,882	17	11

Increase in eight years, 2,719,597 11 9

The value of the exports, from England to the West Indies, was, in

1763, - -	1,149,596	12	4
In 1771, - -	1,155,658	3	11

Increase, in eight years,
only - - 6,061 11 7

The value of the imports into England from the West Indies, was, in

1763, - -	3,268,485	14	6
In 1771, - -	2,800,583	14	0

Decrease in eight years, 467,902 0 6

I have