

CANADA AND THE NAVY

THE TWO POLICIES

100 REASONS

Why the Laurier is Better than the Borden Policy !

WHICH POLICY SHOULD CANADA ADOPT ?

THE CONSERVATIVE POLICY—An immediate expenditure of $35,000,000 on three Dreadnoughts as part of a permanent policy of centralization and contribution.

THE LIBERAL POLICY—A Canadian Naval Service in accordance with the unanimous resolution of the House of Commons of March, 1909.
