

to the judicial authorities for expositions of the letter of the law. It would conceal no loop-holes for the exercise of clerico-political craft ; supply no facilities for covert and dishonest strategy ; and spread out no complicated cobweb to favor the personal schemes and theoretical legerdemain of any public officer.

I have the honor to be, Sir, &c., &c.

A PROTESTANT.

Toronto, 31st March, 1857.

natio
insti
on w
of th
nor
the p
be, i
form
differ
other
schoo
Gene
powe
of T
tive v
is an Gene
state
ing i
argun
Indep
funct
and i
awing
the po
can d
and c
cipal
deman
Appar
in thi
is app
cally t
limits