WASAPIKA'S SUCCESS

The Canadian Mining Journal says: There is considerable interest now in the West Shining Tree gold area. It seems likely that the area will at last receive the attention it deserves. The good judgment and persistence of Mr. George Rogers, who has been respons ble for most of the development work done in recent years, seems very likely to result in the adding of at least one mine to Ontario's gold producers. Mr. Rogers has been quietly plodding along and we are glad to learn that he is meeting with considerable success. If the Wasapika proves to be as good as it looks it will be a real mine.

GREAT REDUCTION IN CORN ACREAGE

Estimate Causes Prices for All Deliveries to Rise to Season's Highest.

Chicago, June 18.—Estimates that the planted corn land in the eight largest states had been reduced in extent this year about $,000,000 acres, extent this year about $,000,000 acres, made all deliveries of corn jump to-day to the highest prices yet this season. The market closed strong at 2-8c to 4 1-4c net gain, with July $1.79-1-2 to $1.79 3-4 and September $1.72 3-4 to $1.73. Oats finished 1 3-8c to 1 7-8c up. In provisions the outome ranged from 65c decline to a rise of 2 1-2c.

Bullish sentiment ruled the corn market as soon as traders understood that the current estimates meant market as soon as traders understood that the current estimates meant planted acreage this year would be the smallest since 1909. Ideal weather had at first led to a dip in values, but this influence was almost immediately forgotten. Assertions on the part of bear leaders were also in vain that, pending the government report of July first the 8,000,000 acre reduction estimate, equal to the entre acreage of Iowa, was too daring to be trusted. Despite considerable profit-taking the reactions from the top prices of the day were relatively slight.

Fear of crop damage gave some in Transce could not pack almost as much as Langevin or Restoul, two indians with a strain of French-Candian blood, who appear to have set of the new comers of 1911.

Restoul, who is now chief fire ranger on the Opickinimika, is known to have packed four hundred lbs. flour and a canoe in a single load over many of the portages of that river. One of the necessary tests of a man's prowess in the bush is what he One of the necessary tests of a man's prowess in the bush is what he can pack. It would be black treason to say that any of the boys who fell in France could not pack almost as much as Langevin or Restout throw from Thomas Cousineau's hotel. They displaced half a dozen chunks of rock and put a few artistic touches of gold paint on their specimens. Armed with these specimens they secured some money which was the only Armed with these specimens they secured some money which was the only object of their visit to the camp and lost their character. They did not once think of looking for gold upon the claim they staked. But fate and fortune are alike, unavoidable upon occasion. Visible gold was discovered last week upon the freak claim staked as described; and if the stakers had only used as much energy in looking for gold showing on the surface as they devoted to the production of fraudulent specimens they might have got their money honestly.

SILVER RUSH STARTING IN THE PAS, MANITOBA

The Pas, Man., June 18.-Nearly hundred inspectors and business men left this city today for Mile 235, on the Hudson Bay railway, to stake mining claims where samples of silver ore of big value were discovered a week As to Langevin, it is authentic that ago by Louis Coteau, a prospector, who has been in this section for several months.

The sample of ore brough; into this city is similar to that found in the Cobalt. Ont., district, and it is the general opinion among miners that the recent discovery will result in a big rush to this section.

The there have been numerous discoveries of gold and copper in The Pas district since prospectors started coming in this is the first time reports of silver ore discoveries have been made.

The Advent of a Great Mining Camp---SHINING TREE

From Present Indications Will Have Many Producing Gold Mines

Shining Tree cannot be ignored.

The skeptic has been convinced that several properties have demonstrated they will make big producers. In the early days of all mining camps there are real opportunities to acquire stock at prices that return handsome profits. The Churchill Mining and Milling Co. properties lie to the west of Wasapika and south of the Herrick, in the area that appears the most favorable. The veins exposed are marvelous in the richness of ore exhibited. We cannot but recommend the property.

The stock will be sold at prospect prices. We predict higher prices in the immediate future when active trading begins after listing.
