Forty-one Cases Now Reported

Board of Control Decide to Delay Steps for Vaccination.

The board of control were evidently against raising a scare in the city and did not take any definite steps to deal with the request of Dr. Hastings and the local board of health that a proclamation be issued requiring general vaccination. It was decided to hold over the question until Friday.

The medical officer of health said yesterday that he did not hesitate to say there were 200 mild cases in the city at the present time and there might be more as the majority of physicians reported by post. During the past 24 hours 18 new smallpox cases were reported and none of them were sent to the hospital, but were quarantined at their homes, making the total of home quarantined cases in the city 27. In the hospital there are 14 cases being attended to, bringing the total cases reported in the city up to 41.

The schools will not be closed unless the vaccination is required, and the M. O. H. feels that the children can be kept under observation by the school nurses and the disease recognized at an early period. The vaccination of the children will begin in a few days when a sufficient supply of vaccine is obtained by the health department.

Prof. J. J. MacKenzie, head of the department of pathology and bacteriology in the Toronto University, is a great believer in vaccination and advises every one in the city to undergo the operation. On the other hand a deputization to wait on the board of control on Friday to appeal against any order for compulsory vaccination being issued. The deputization will be represented by homeopaths and others who object to vaccination on general grounds.

TONIGHT'S CONFERENCE

Some 30,000 Veterans of All Associations to be Represented at St. James' Parish Hall.

The round table conference of all veterans' organizations in Toronto, which is to be held in St. James' Parish Hall tonight, will represent about 30,000 Toronto veterans.

Each of the veterans' associations in the city will be represented by five delegates. This includes the G.W.V.A., G.A.C., Originals' Club, Army and Navy Veterans of Canada, His Majesty's Army and Navy Veterans, and possibly one or two battalion associations. The main discussion will concern the best means of getting together permanently in the interests of the returned men generally. Whether some sort of unity will be established remains to be seen.

ORIGINALS TO CONSIDER REVISION

The matter of considering the revision of the constitution of the G.W.V.A. by the joint committee of Toronto and Hamilton branches, will be dealt with at a special general meeting of the Originals' Club, to be held on Friday, Nov. 7, in the Sons of England hall. Col. A. T. Hunter, who presided at the meeting before the parliamentary committee at Ottawa, will make a report and the question of making application for a Dominion charter will be decided. A successor to President W. K. Coulter, who is resigning from office, will also be chosen by the meeting and other general business dealt with.

PARKDALE SEEKS MEMBERS.

Altho the project of a general membership drive in the interest of the G.W.V.A. has been deferred for the present, Parkdale branch proposes to launch a campaign for members in its own district in the very near future. If any fair measure of success is achieved, the remaining branches will not be long in following suit.

CENTRAL COUNCIL MEETS

Ratepayers of Moore and Deer Parks Petition for Re-election Ground.

At the regular monthly meeting of the central council of the Ratepayers' Association last night in the city hall a deputation of residents of the Moore and Deer Parks districts made a request that the council take some steps toward providing a recreation ground in those localities where the children and parents could meet to play games, such as tennis etc. and where the children could also play themselves under the supervision of the city. One member of the deputation said it was not safe to allow the children to play in the vacant fields in the vicinity on some people in the neighborhood, and also that since the coming of Davisville hospital the fields in the district needed the supervision of the police. A resolution that the deputation, accompanied by delegates from the council, wait on the parks commissioner in this connection was passed. Later it was recommended that the photographs of all Toronto soldiers killed in the war be hung in the city hall or some other suitable building, and a letter asking the Canadian Literature Club to affiliate with the central council was read.

Canadian Trade Commission Objects to Rate of Exchange

Ottawa, Nov. 5.—The practice of shipping companies in Montreal in applying the New York rate of exchange for determining freight charges collected in Britain on goods shipped from Canada has brought a protest from the Canadian trade commission. The trade commission points out that British importers naturally believe Canada should be independent of the United States in these matters, and has asked the shipping companies to apply the Canadian rate of exchange.

Grand Army Baking Show Tonight in Massey Hall

The baking show at Massey Hall tonight is under the auspices of the Grand Army of Canada. The first pair take the ring at 8.30. All the bakers will be weighed at the ringside. Neither Rocky Kansas nor Eddie Dorsey have ever appeared locally before. Both the Buffalo baker and the colored champion have met Benny Leonard, Kansas having a draw with the title-holder, while Dorsey was shaded in a ten-round bout. The complete card is as follows:

Kansas (Buffalo) v. Dorsey (Toronto), 10 rounds at catchweights.
Young Ernie (Ottawa) v. Bull (Toronto), 10 rounds at catchweights.
Dick Atkins (Toronto) v. Joe Thomas (Buffalo), six rounds at 125 pounds.
Red Gallagher (Toronto) v. Chip Davis (Buffalo), six rounds at 125 pounds.
In addition there will be a wrestling bout between Artie Edmonds and Jack Forbes, which will be the last number on the bill. The G.A.C. Band will also be in attendance. Brigadier-General Gunn and Lieut.-General Emsley will judge the boxing bouts.

Possibly Contribution From Siiter or Malcolm

Kingston, Nov. 5.—The Whig, in its sporting column today, has the following: "This talk of a contribution from Siiter or Malcolm is unwarranted. If Shaughnessy can intercollegiate rules all credit to him. Let him remain where he is, and perhaps the day may come when the college authorities may be able to formulate rules that will eliminate interference on the line. Shaughnessy is showing up the flaws in new rules that were thought to be beyond any question. After having viewed the work of the McGill coach, surely the intercollegiate stalwarts, claiming to be the best, should be ashamed of Kingston, can counter his trick plays. The fault must lie in the present rules, and not with the McGill coach."

Johnny McKelvey's Story Of the Tiger's Touchdown

Fair-minded spectators will laugh back at Johnny McKelvey, when that player simply laughs at the Argonauts' claim, according to a Hamilton paper which says that he crossed the touchline in that try and winning the game last Saturday. The reporter asked Johnny to make a statement, and here it is:

"When the signal was given for me to carry the ball I was fully six yards from the touchline. I ran forward to throw the first Argonaut player who tackled me, and after I evaded him, I encountered but two, and I dodged to the inside of them, so that it was not necessary for me to cross the line, or even go near it. If the crowd was on the field, as the Argos claim, how was it possible for the crowd without being blocked? I had a clear field, with the exception of the three Argonaut men who tried to catch me."

"The first man I shoved away, and the other two did not even touch me. The crowd did not come on the field until after I had planted the ball behind the Argonaut goal-line. The fact that I had such a clear field shows that the Argos were caught off their guard, for they were all set for a drop-kick, and they did not expect an end run by me around the short end of the field, even if one had been attempted."

EASY FOR JACK BRITTON.

Detroit, Nov. 5.—Jack Britton, welter weight champion of the world, easily out-pointed Johnny Tilmann of Minneapolis in a ten-round bout here tonight. Britton extended himself only in the last round.

REV. S. SWEATMAN DEAD

Late Rector of St. Martin's-in-the-Fields, Dies of Pleurisy at Western Hospital.

Rev. S. de Koven Sweatman, rector of St. Martin's-in-the-Fields Anglican Church, taken ill only on Sunday, died Tuesday afternoon in the Western Hospital from pleurisy. Mr. Sweatman was born thirty-seven years ago in Winnipeg and was an arts graduate of the University of Manitoba. He took his divinity course at Trinity College, and received his M.A. there in 1903.

Until 1906 he was curate of St. Thomas Church, at Huron street. He was ordained a priest in that year and went to St. Martin's, where he worked
