Hamilton Happenings

Harry McKay in the Toils-Fred Ross of Ancaster Accused of Horse Stealing.

HAMILTON, July 30.—(Special.)-Harry McKay, who used to live on Yonge-street, was this afternoon arrested by Detectives Coulter and Miller, charged with abduction. It is alleged that he ran away several months ago to Chicago with a young girl, whose mother is now very ill. He did not re turn to the city till a short time ago. Fred Ross, Ancaster, was locked up this afternoon, on the charge of horse stealing. It is alleged that he dreve a team into the city last Saturday to get a load of supplies for Woodman Bros., and that he sold the team. William Canute fell into the clutches of Detective Coulter to-night, accused of stealing a quantity of pipe. The military tattoo given by the sist Regiment and band at Britannia Park this evening, attracted a croowd between 400 0and 5000. There were the following bands: Q. O. R. and Grenadier sof Toronto; 13th and 91st, Hami! ton; 777th, Dundas, and 44th, Grimsby There were fireworks and illumination and drill by a squad of the 91st Regiment. Much disappointment was fe't because the 48th Band was ont allowed to take part.

The British journalists were entertained this afternoon and evening by the proprietors of local papers. They were met at Grimsby Park and had luncheon at the residence of J, M Eastwood. To-night they had a sail on the bay and dinner at the Royal Hamilton Yacht Club. Calvin, the infant son of Calvin Davis, city editor of The Hamilton Times, died to-night, after two days'
