TIMES, MARCH 6, 1915

A Pittsfield man has given up smoking during Lent, but unconsciously walked into a cigar store and bought three of his favorites. He started to bite off the end of one when he recalled his pledge. He then went to his club and offered the cigars to three different men, but they, too, had "sworn off" for the Lenten season.

Several weeks ago Mrs. Essie Cohan, of Fort Scott, Kan., brought divorce proceedings against her husband, Marion F. Cohan. A few days ago she disappeared and after a two days' search her attorneys found that she had eloped with her husband, they having settled all their differences.

Emil A. Tresger, typewriting champion, of Green Bay, Wis., shattered his own record recently by running up a score of 147 words in one minute without an error.

A MESSAGE TO THE SOLDIER BOYS AND THEIR FRIENDS.
Every soldier naturally wants to keep lasting record of the brave part that he and his own regiment are playing in the war—and he can do so easily and well with the Little Vest Pocket Kodak. The Vest Pocket Kodak has no equal for the soldier either at the front or in the training camp. It is in fact the ideal soldier's Kodak, having every advantage the soldier looks for.

To the soldier—A picture record will be priceless not only to you, but to generations to come. You are helping to make history, and your little Vest Pocket Kodak pictures will become historical in the truest sense. Every scene pictured, from your first days in the training camp to final peace celebrations, will remain as real and as vivid as in actual fact. J. M. Roche & Co., Ltd., 107 King street.

Professor Charles P. Currelly of the University of Toronto, lectured before the St. John Archaeological Society last evening on "A Roman Rubbish Heap in Egypt." A vote of thanks moved by Ven. Archdeacon Raymond and seconded.

In the "Home Guard"

The householder who through Life Insurance protects his dependents against want is just as truly in the "Home Guard" as the good citizen who carries a rifle.

The Last Line of Defence for many a man is his insurance policy, and if it be in the CANADA LIFE that defence may be greatly strengthened by applying his dividends to relieve the burden of payments in his later years.

In many cases Canada Life dividends have cancelled the premiums, and turned an expense into a source of revenue.

For Example

Under Canada Life policy No. 13,813 dividends have been applied as a life annuity towards paying the premium of $42. In the past five years the annuity was $44.94, paying the premium and leaving a margin of $2.94. In the next five years all premiums will be paid by profits and there will be a yearly cash return of $18.04 besides. This annuity is guaranteed for life and will be further increased every fifth year.
