

BRITISH STRENGTH IS CHRISTIANITY

Former St. John Clergyman Addresses Toronto Sons of England.

Addressing the members of the Central District of the Sons of England at the annual service of the society at Holy Trinity church in Toronto, the rector, Rev. Canon L. Ralph Sherman, former curate of Trinity church in St. John, declared that Christianity had been, and still was, the great strength of the English race.

The speaker's text was: "God is Our Help and Strength." In commencing he showed how man in all ages had striven to understand the ultimate. With the coming of Christ the world had learned that the ultimate was to be found in the offer of the opportunity of becoming a part of His great strength.

Strength of English Race. "Underneath all our pomp and show, that strength has been the great strength of the English race," asserted the speaker, "without pride, without boasting, or without hypocrisy, that has been the keynote of our civilization in its best sense."

As proof of this statement Canon Sherman offered a comparison between the English civilization and the civilization of other great races. Rome, for instance, had developed two great principles—government of the community by law and the supremacy of the claims of the State as against those of the individual—but it was Christianity, and not the operation of these two principles, that had arrested the decay of the Roman State. Greece had produced the very flower of philosophy and literature, and yet Greece, too, had had to turn to Christianity for salvation. Similarly, in modern times the fate of Germany, obsessed by the doctrine that right is might, had shown how futile were the struggles of a nation that forgot Christianity.

Must Be Personal. On the positive side, England's history at every phase had "taught the reality of Christianity," asserted the speaker. It had always been remembered, however, that Christianity was essentially personal, and that the Englishman who believed that Christianity was the underlying strength of the English race had himself to make Christianity live in his own experience.

British Lines Leaving Russia. Moscow, Oct. 22.—The White Star, Cunard and other big steamship lines which have been operating in Russia for three years are rapidly liquidating their affairs and will soon withdraw entirely from that country. The Canadian Pacific, which has done considerable business transporting Menominee from Southern Russia to Canada, will remain on until the end of the year. All of these companies were heavily

Community Sale at London House

More of Those Stylish Fall Coats

With High "Muffler" Fur Collar—Special $29.75

The popular "suedine" cloth coats in green, taupe, gray or brown, have new stylish "viatka" fur collar that rolls right up tight to chin—very stylish. They have rows of buttons and silk stitchings in attractive block designs as their trimmings.

The New "Prince of Wales" Coats—Arriving $22.75

An attractive double breasted—semi-belted, made on boyish lines "cut in" under arm giving the new paddock effect—attractive heathers.

London House
F. W. DANIEL & CO. Head King St.

Natural Pongee Over-Blouses—A Special Group at $3.25

A very attractive style with Peter Pan collar. Finished with black bow tie and long sleeves with double cuffs, have wide bottom band, fastening at either side with pearl buttons.

A Sale of Leather Pouch Bags at $2.68

Three different pouch shapes of fine soft finished leather in gray, fawn, brown, cocoa, navy or black, metal frame with colored stone set fastening—neatly fitted.

OCTOBER BRIDES

Stephenson-Smith.

Of much interest was the largely attended wedding at Queen Square Methodist church yesterday afternoon at 6.15 o'clock, when Rev. Neil MacLauchlan solemnized the marriage of Miss Frances Margaret Smith, eldest daughter of Mr. and Mrs. R. Duncan Smith, to Ralph Stanley Stephenson, son of Mr. and Mrs. E. S. Stephenson. The church was beautifully decorated by friends of the bride, with pine, rowan berries and potted plants. The bride, who was given in marriage by her father, was prettily gowned in a traveling suit of navy blue, with gray hat and platinum fox fur. The bride and groom were unattended. Mrs. Blair McLean played the wedding music and Mrs. F. G. Spencer sang Barab's "O Perfect Love." The ushers were Messrs. Alfred E. Stephenson, brother of the groom, and Clayton G. Teed. Immediately after the ceremony Mr. and Mrs. Stephenson left on the 6.10 train for Halifax, N. S., where they will take the boat for Bermuda for their honeymoon trip. On their return Mr. and Mrs. Stephenson will reside at 21 Orange street. Among the guests at the wedding were Mrs. Mona Teed, mother of the bride from Calais, Me., and Mrs. C. E. Nielsen, aunt of the groom. There were many many presents given to the bride. They included a handsome silver service and tray from the manager and staff of the Canadian Fairbanks Morse Co., of which the groom is assistant manager, chair from the Sunday school and Y. P. A., of Queen Square church, of which the bride and groom are both active members.

Leighton-Briggs.

Dr. Goucher, of St. Stephen, was the officiating clergyman at the marriage which was solemnized at St. Stephen, on Oct. 18, of Miss Verrell Briggs, of York Mills, eldest daughter of Mr. and Mrs. J. M. Briggs, of York Mills, and Charles Everett Leighton, of McAdam, N. B., only son of Mrs. R. Campbell, of St. Stephen. The bride was given away by her father. Only the immediate members of the family were present. After the ceremony, the bridal party motored to the home of the bride's parents. In the evening the wedding reception was celebrated at York Mills Hall, where about one hundred of the more intimate friends and relatives of the bride and groom assembled to offer their congratulations. The Kingston Orchestra was present, and dancing and games were thoroughly enjoyed. The bride was dressed in a sky blue georgette, trimmed with silver and beads, and a bandeau of orange blossoms. Her slippers were brocade satin. The bride carried a beautiful bouquet of Ophelia roses, white carnations and maiden-hair fern. The hall was decorated with autumn leaves and cut flowers. Bountiful refreshments in the form of fruits, candies, sandwiches, coffee, cakes of every variety, ice cream and brides' cake were served by girl friends. The presents were beautiful and numerous, the groom's gift to the bride being a platinum wrist watch set with diamonds. They are spending their honeymoon at Lake Umbagog.

Kirkpatrick-Gilliland.

A quiet wedding took place yesterday afternoon at the home of Mr. and Mrs. J. A. Gilliland, Ononette, when their youngest daughter, Annie Kirkpatrick, Rev. Robert Smart officiated at the ceremony. They were unattended. The bride was dressed in a traveling suit of gray with hat to match. Many beautiful gifts were received by the young people. After a short motor trip through the province they will reside in Westfield.

MacCallum-Page.

At the residence of the bride's parents on Oct. 7, Alice Lorraine, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Granville H. Page, and Cecil L. MacCallum, of Boston, were united in marriage. Rev. H. B. Bell, pastor of the Baptist church at Centerville, officiating. The double ring ceremony was used. Mrs. W. Webb, aunt of the bride, played the wedding march while Miss Hilda Wilson sang a solo before the ceremony. Miss Hilda MacCallum, sister of the groom, attended the bride while Howard Page, a cousin of the bride, supported the groom. Mr. and Mrs. MacCallum will reside in Boston.

Bacon-Clark.

A pretty wedding was solemnized at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Frank Clark, Oak Point, at noon yesterday when Rev. Robert Smart united in marriage their daughter, Rosie May, with Kenneth G. Bacon, son of Mr. and Mrs. Thomas H. Bacon, of Central Greenwich. The young people will reside in Central Greenwich.

Pearl-Keith.

A quiet and pretty wedding was solemnized yesterday afternoon at 2 Bryden street, North End, when Miss Ketia D. Keith, of Philadelphia, Penn., was united in marriage to Charles W. Pearl, of Lewisville, Westmorland county, N. B. The ceremony was performed by Rev. Dr. David Hutchinson, a Quaker.

A quiet and pretty wedding was solemnized yesterday afternoon at 2 Bryden street, North End, when Miss Ketia D. Keith, of Philadelphia, Penn., was united in marriage to Charles W. Pearl, of Lewisville, Westmorland county, N. B. The ceremony was performed by Rev. Dr. David Hutchinson, a Quaker.

DEATHS

George Gorham

George Gorham, aged 76 years, died in the General Public Hospital at midnight, after an illness of 10 days. Mr. Gorham, who was one of the oldest residents of the North End, was a leading merchant tailor for 67 years, being in partnership prior to establishing his own business, with Fred Tapley, now in British Columbia. He was one of the oldest members of the Independent Order of Odd Fellows, having received recently his jewel for 50 years membership in the order. Mr. Gorham was a charter member of No. 2 Salvage Corps, North End, and was very proud of his part in organizing it about 25 years ago. He was harbor master of Indian town for years, succeeding the late Robert Dalton. He also held a medal for military service in the Fenian raid of 1865.

He was born in Glenwood in 1848 and was married to Miss Sarah Campbell, of this city, when quite a young man. Mr. Gorham died several years ago. Mr. Gorham was the last of a family of 12. He leaves four sons, Frank M., and H. L., of St. John; A. C. Gorham, of Sussex, director of agriculture in the schools, and Edward Gorham, of St. John, who has been in partnership for some time with his father. Two daughters also survive. Mrs. F. B. Belyea, of this city, and Mrs. W. H. Kienzell, of Philadelphia. There are eleven grandchildren and four great grandchildren. James Gorham, of Douglas Avenue, is a nephew. The funeral will be announced later.

John Beattie.

Harcourt, Oct. 22—John Beattie, one of the oldest residents of Harcourt,

The Now Famous British Cavalry Blankets

Both new and part worn also AMERICAN CAVALRY BLANKETS, very strong and durable! Wool Auto Rugs, Work and Driving Mitts and Gloves.

HARNESS in sets or parts. See our Special All-Leather Horse Collar for $3.65.

Harness, Collars, Trunks, Bags and all Leather Goods repaired with neatness and dispatch. Motor and Separator Oils.

"THE LEATHER STORE" ROBERT J. COX

Established 1892. 247 Union St. 10-27

Stores Open 8.30 a.m.; Close 6 p.m.; Saturday 10 p.m.

Community Week Sale

In Our Men's Shops

Colored Shirts

perfect fitting and fully guaranteed. The best value we have offered yet. Only $1.59 ea.

Pure Linen Handkerchiefs

with 1-4 in. hemstitched hems 50c ea.

"Jumbo Knit" Pull-Over Sweaters

Exactly what you'll want for winter sports and all outdoor uses. A big special . . . $5 ea.

Wardrobe Trunks

Three big values in numbers we are closing out. Be sure and see these. $22.50, $39.50, $55.00 (Men's Furnishings—Ground Floor.)

Special Community Week Bargains in all other departments throughout the store.

Big Value Offered in Men's Suits and Topcoats

Fine Winter Overcoats at $19.50

This is a price any man can afford to pay—and the coats are in models any man would be pleased to wear. Only once in a long time do you see such an extraordinary value at the beginning of the season. Materials, colors and styles will meet with your approval. All sizes.

Very Unusual Bargains in Men's Suits

You may choose from tweeds, pencil stripes, browns, greys and heather mixtures. Fashionable, good-wearing—every suit among them a genuine bargain. Bought at a very special price—we are passing the bargain opportunity along. Only a limited quantity. Buy them this week-end at $12.50, $15.50, $17.50

(Men's shop—2nd floor.)

All Wool Socks

Heavy ribbed in black, brown, navy and dark heathers. English make. Very fine value . . . 45c pr.

Knitted Neckwear

In the new Swiss silks, popular narrow width. A good time to make some Christmas selections . . . 89c ea.

Sleeping Garments

Including shaker pajamas at $2.25 suit Night Shirts in soft shaker $1.69 garment

Special Underwear Values For Men

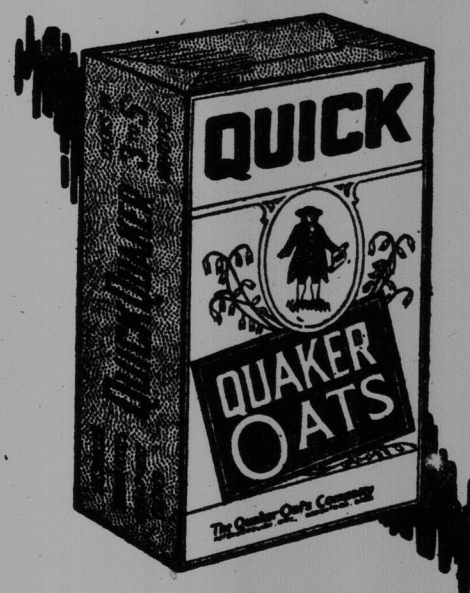

"Penrhans" Shirts and Drawers in fine merino finish. Weight suitable for wearing now and later . . . 98c garment
Fleece Lined Shirts and Drawers—extra fine quality. Only a limited quantity to sell at . . . 98c garment

Manchester Robertson Allison Limited
KING STREET • GERMAIN STREET • MARKET SQUARE

RED ROSE

For COFFEE particular people—Pure! No chicory or any adulterant in this choice coffee

Now—a quick, hot breakfast

NOW you can prepare a whole some HOT breakfast more quickly than ever you could before. Quick Quaker cooks perfectly in 3 to 5 minutes. It is quicker than coffee—quicker than toast.

Quick Quaker is milled from the same choice Canadian oats as regular Quaker. Both kinds have the same nourishing food values. Both have the same incomparable Quaker flavour. Both are packed in sealed cartons that ensure perfect cleanliness.

But in Quick Quaker the grains are cut in two, rolled thinner and partly cooked before packing. Therefore Quick Quaker is quick. It cooks perfectly in 3 to 5 minutes.

Quaker Oats
The kind you have always used

Quick Quaker
Cooks in 3 to 5 minutes

Now 2 kinds

Quaker Oats
In Sealed Cartons Only

POLICEMAN FREED ON DEATH CHARGE

Halifax, Oct. 22—Earl Whidden, Canadian National Railway police of

WATERBURY & RISING Ltd.

212 Union Street 677 Main Street
61 King Street

Specials in Men's Overcoats

Grey and Brown Ulster Coats, with full serge linings and warmly interlined.

$13.95

26 Coats made of British and Irish cloths in a variety of shades. These coats have quilted linings, fully interlined. Several different styles in this lot.

The special price is . . . $22.50

AMDUR'S LTD.

"The Store That Sets The Pace"

No. 1 King Sq. Opp. City Market

GLASSES ON WEEKLY PAYMENTS
Optical Parlor at 191 Union Street, where you will be able to have your eyes examined by a Registered Optometrist and have glasses specially made for you. These glasses will be delivered to you on the payment of a deposit. The balance to be paid in weekly payments at no extra cost.
UP STAIRS

J. A. EPSTEIN