

GOOD THINGS COMING TO THE THEATRES OF ST. JOHN

SIX FAVORITES IN THIS STORY

Imperial Theatre Has Wonderful Paramount Feature with Betty Compson, Milton Sills and Others—Lake Placid Races Extra Feature.

"At The End of the World," which is the title of the Imperial's Paramount feature for tonight and tomorrow, is a vivid tale of a girl who was brought up in an Anglo-Chinese town in Shanghai by her English father and her love affairs with a bank clerk, a millionaire, a strolling novelist and a sea captain. The star performers are Betty Compson, Milton Sills, Mitchell Lewis, Casson Ferguson, Joseph Kilgour and Spottiswoode Aiken. The Lake Placid diamond trophy races in which Gorman competed, also the regular cup races which Garnett will be shown. They were photographed by the Imperial's own special cameraman, a Pathe operator.

LAKE PLACID RACES AT IMPERIAL TODAY

Imperial Theatre has the Lake Placid championship races today, not only the diamond trophy events but the silver cup series, in which Gorman competed. Views of the crowd, the officials and the St. John delegation will also be shown. The same Pathe operator who took the St. John pictures was on the scene at Lake Placid, courteously assisted by Frank L. McCafferty, of St. John, who represented the Imperial management in selecting the subject matter.

IN MEMORIAM

HALL—In loving memory of Cecil J. Hall, of 51 Guilford street, West St. John, who departed this life February 15, 1920.

A lonely spot and a lonely grave, In sight of a beautiful bay; Where the willows droop and fit trees wave, And the shadows across it sway.

We think of you in silence; No one can see us weep; But many a bitter tear we shed When others are asleep.

MOTHER AND FAMILY

MURRAY—In sad but loving memory of my dear mother, Ellen Murray, who departed this life February 15, 1920.

Two years have passed since that sad day When mother, dear, was called away God took you home, it was His will. Forget you? No, I never will.

DIVIDEND ANNOUNCEMENTS. Annual meeting of the Women's Hospital Aid in the board of trade rooms on Thursday at 8 o'clock; executive at 2:30.

BRIDGE PARTY. In the St. Elizabeth's society rooms, Douglas avenue, last evening, the members of the society were hostesses at a small bridge party. Prizes were won by Miss Alice Dwyer and Mrs. A. L. Gibbs. Dainty refreshments were served, and all present voted the occasion a most enjoyable one.

AN INTERESTING FIND. While digging near the fence separating the yard of the court house from the registry building the foundation walls of an old building were struck recently and what was apparently the cellar of an old trading post which had once stood on the summit of the large rock hill there was uncovered. Old-fashioned clay pipes and several old coins dating between 1777 and 1849 were found.

WALTER J. DALEY. With the death of Walter J. Daley, of 29 Millidge avenue this morning, sorrow has settled for the third time in six months on the members of his family. A few months ago Fred Coughlin, brother-in-law, passed away, and Cornelius Daley, his father, died a short time ago. Mr. Daley was a master painter by trade and was very well known and highly respected in the North End. He is survived by his wife, an infant child; his mother, Mrs. Cornelius Daley; five brothers, John, Daniel and Gerald, of this city; Fred, of Sydney, and Frank, of Boston; two sisters, Mrs. Fred Coughlin and Mrs. John O'Brien, both of St. John. Burial will take place on Friday.

MRS. CHAS. W. MASTEN. The death of Mrs. Annie Jane Masten, wife of Charles W. Masten, of 205 McCall street, occurred early this morning in the General Public Hospital, at the age of sixty-nine. She had been ill for four months and a great sufferer, yet bore it all with Christian fortitude. Mrs. Masten, who was a daughter of the late John B. and Sophia McCall, was highly respected by all who knew her, and will be greatly missed by her wide circle of friends. She was a lady of keen intellect and had quite a literary talent, having composed numerous articles of prose and verse, many of which have appeared in the daily press from time to time. She leaves her husband, two sons, Donald and Ross, both at home, and one daughter, Mrs. Ernest Gorman of Brown's Point; also one sister, Mrs. David S. Garnett of Silver Falls. The funeral will take place tomorrow afternoon at 2:30 from Brenan's undertaking parlors, Rev. G. B. Hudson officiating.

FIVE MONTREAL RESIDENCE BURNED. Montreal, Feb. 15.—The residence of Wm. Lyall, president of the Lynn Construction Co., at 810 Clark street, Westmount was completely demolished by fire early today.

The loss is estimated in the vicinity of a quarter of a million dollars.

DEMPSEY IN NEW YORK: SOME RUMORS AFLOAT

New York, Feb. 15.—Mystery pervaded Grand Central station this morning while anxious fight promoters and reporters were waiting for the arrival of Jack Dempsey, who was coming out of the west in response to an urgent summons. He is to meet his manager, Jack Kearns, today.

There is much speculation as to the purpose behind the visit. Some rumors told of a proposed trip to Europe, where he would meet Bombardier Wells, Joe Beckett, Georges Cook and others, and would then wind up by again engaging with Carpenter.

Another rumor was that Dempsey was to enter a 24-foot ring with Harry Wills, while a third had it that a return fight with Jack Willard was contemplated.

POLICE COURT

drunkenness and was remanded to jail. Samuel Levine and Joseph Hayes were before the magistrate on a charge of being drunk and lurking in the C. N. R. yard last night. They pleaded guilty and were remanded.
