PLAYS WOMEN FIGHT FANS. London, Eng., April 14—Women who go to prize fights emulate the wives and daughters of Romans in the darkest days of the Roman Empire. Rev. F. B. Meyer, president of the Free Church Council at Leicester, declared. He also denounced the present impudency of fashion, the substitution of spiritualism for religion, the sensuousness of the dance, and the craze for amusement. Drink, he said, was the devil's master stroke.
