

GUNNER A. E. KNIGHT
WRITES OF CANADIAN ENTRY INTO MONS

An interesting letter has just arrived in the English mails from Gunner Arthur E. Knight, son of John S. Knight, 390 Douglas avenue. Gunner Knight went overseas in No. 9 Siege Battery and was one of the triumphant Canadian soldiers who marched gloriously into the city of Mons the day before the armistice was signed. He writes in glowing terms of the reception accorded the victorious Canadians, the hospitality of the people and the unbounded joy felt on all sides at the relief naturally brought through the recapture of the city by the dominion forces.

Gunner Knight told in his letter also of the billeting of the soldiers after the taking of the city and their daily routine and how they now "carry on." Gunner Knight has had a wonderful experience of fighting and was among the fortunate in passing through the entire fall offensive without once being wounded. He was formerly employed in Vassie & Company's and is a well known young man about the city. His friends will be glad to hear that he is safe and well. He added in his letter that German currency was practically the only money in circulation in Mons. The Germans had occupied this city for more than four years.

Another brother, Gunner John S. Knight, who has seen three and a half years of service in France and was wounded, is now visiting friends in the north of Scotland. He was with W. H. Thorne & Co. Ltd., this city, before enlisting.

NO PERMANENT PEACE UNTIL ASSEMBLY MEETS

Amsterdam, Dec. 10.—The Deutsche Tages Zeitung of Berlin, a copy of which has been received here, says it learns from a reliable source that the Entente Powers will refuse to conclude a preliminary peace treaty with Germany before the meeting of a German national assembly.

365 Happy Reminders of You

Give him a Gillette for Christmas.

It is a very difficult thing to determine exactly a man's fancy in the matter of cigars, neckwear, books, and other common gifts.

But you cannot go wrong if you give him a Gillette. It is the really useful gift, something that he would select if you consulted him.

Imagine what it means to a man to have a chin as smooth as your own, to have his shaving time reduced to 5 minutes, so that he can shave every day.

Imagine, too, how grateful he will feel to you 365 times in the year. Buy him a Gillette Safety Razor. It represents the most happy inspiration as a gift, and is five dollars well spent.

Sold at all jewelers, druggists and hardware dealers.
