ST. JOHN LADY IN PORTLAND.

MAINE.

A paper to hand from Portland, Me., contains an account of a very successful play presented by amateurs in that city on last Wednesday evening, a piece entitled "Notoriety," directed and staged by Miss A. L. Harrison, formerly of St. John. Miss Harrison, who left St. John some years ago to take up professional nursing in the Maine metropolis, has been actively engaged in amateur dramatic and musical work there merely as a pastime. This latest effort has been highly praised by the press and a large picture of the cast appears in one issue.

Besides the dramatic program in fostering dramatic talent in Portland and vicinity Miss Harrison is a prolific writer of children's fiction and in more serious vein some complete books and brochures upon nursing. Her talents are much appreciated in the adjoining state. Miss Harrison is a sister of Arthur L. Harrison, musician, of this city.

HERO SINKS IN MARBLE COVE

River Towboat Was Just About Ready to Begin Season's Work

The towboat Hero, belonging to the St. John River Log Driving Company, sank at its winter berth, Marble Cove, Indian town, last night and at present lies almost completely submerged, only the tops of the paddle boxes and funnel showing above water.

It is an annoying coincidence that the boat was to be put in commission today or tomorrow, having been coaled up and otherwise made ready. In fact just at this juncture the need of towing craft is becoming urgent as mills have commenced to saw and a steady supply of logs is required.

The Hero is one of the old Glazier fleet of river boats and a familiar one to many. It is about thirty years of age but still able to do a good job at towing. Captain C. A. Gentry, who lives above Frederickton, is to command the Hero as he has done for some seasons. He is expected to arrive today or tomorrow.

The sunken tug will probably be buoyed up with saws and floated to a beach either in the pulp mill cove at the Falls or in Market slip and there drained and made ready again for service. It is not thought that it is seriously damaged, if at all. The accident is thought to have occurred through the opening of one of the cocks.

SPANIARDS IN FIGHT WITH RAISULA'S BAND.

Paris, April 8.—A belated Havas despatch from Tangier, Morocco, says a Spanish force in camp five miles from Twann was attacked on March 21 by the Bjadala tribesmen under Raisula, the one-time pretender to the Moroccan throne. The Spaniards suffered heavily and were forced to retreat precipitately but were able to regain their camp.

NEW FOUNTAIN UP TO THE MINUTE

One to be Placed at Corner of Brussels and Union Streets to be Well Equipped

At an executive session of the Women's Council held last week, it was decided to proceed with the installation of a drinking fountain for man and beast on what is officially known as Union Square, but what many people are more familiar with as the wood-cart stand, corner Union and Brussels streets. The need of such a utility in that prominent junction place has been mentioned many times in public and seems apparent to all observing people. St. John has very few desirable drinking fountains, except they be the ones located in stores and public buildings. These are merely all bubble fountains.

Those interested in having the new man-and-beast fountain set up have plans and specifications for a sanitary bubble outfit, and what is even more up-to-date, an individual cup system for drinking cups for horses. These cups are stationary, measuring six inches across. The water bubbles from the bottom and washes away all objectionable matter into the basin, whence it is carried into the sewer. Horses cannot get their noses into the large basin, neither can the water overflow to render the street dirty and objectionable. At the base are two drinking places for small animals. The basin is set high enough to allow the pole or shaft of a wagon to go underneath.

Facing the walk it is proposed to have an inscription telling the object of the fountain, which, it is hoped, will be a continuous reminder of what is owed the dumb animals and an incentive to the young to more considerate treatment of their four-footed friends.

This type of fountain is endorsed by the Massachusetts Humane Society, which has installed several of them. It has been tested in all kinds of weather and will not become clogged by sediment or freeze in cold weather.

FIRE THE LAST SHOT FROM HIS BATTERY

Honor Enjoyed by St. John Soldier Bdr. L. K. Furze, Just Welcomed Home

Bdr. Lyman K. Furze arrived home on Sunday morning from overseas on the S. S. Caronia, having seen three years of active service in France. Bombardier Furze went overseas in 1916 as a gunner in No. 7 Siege Battery known in France as No. 6. He was through all the engagements since the Somme offensive and had the honor of firing the last shot from his battery a little before the armistice was signed. Three days later he contracted pneumonia and after spending some time in a hospital in Manchester, Eng., where he recovered his health.

He was accorded a hearty welcome from relatives and friends on his arrival and the house was gaily decorated with flags and bunting on the occasion of his homecoming.

SCANDINAVIAN THURSDAY

The S. S. Scandinavian is due to arrive in St. John April 10, bringing a total of 864 officers, other ranks and dependents. Those coming on the vessel are Canadians who have been serving in the imperial army and who have been repatriated. The following is a list of those on board:

The steamer Lapland which sailed from England on April 3, has 1,974 Canadian troops on board including 102 officers and 1,872 other ranks. She is due at Halifax on April 11.

POLICE COURT

Albert Brennan, who is licensed to keep a beer shop in Frio, was in the police court this morning charged with selling liquor contrary to the prohibition law. Inspectors McAlinsh and Garnett visited the place last night and found alcohol. The accused put up a deposit and the case will be heard at a later date.

Harry and Ernest Gunn were charged with drunkenness. They pleaded guilty and were fined $8 or two months in jail; another fine which was imposed a short time ago for assaulting a man, was also required to be paid.

They were also charged by Mrs. Rebecca Lobb with drinking in her back yard, knocking on her window and when asked by her to go away using threatening language to her and threatening that they would put a shot through the window. The case was postponed for evidence.

Four Italians and two other men were charged with drunkenness. They were fined $8 each or two months in jail. Albert and Joseph Council were charged with being drunk and with breaking and entering and stealing axes from Campbell's factory. Detective Biddiscombe, while standing at the head of Brunswick street saw the defendants, and becoming suspicious, followed them till they went to a shed. They went in there and he heard the clink of axes. They were put under arrest. The case was postponed for further evidence.
