DEFEAT OF RED ARMY COMPLETE

Disaster That Led Bela Kun to Go to Entente Details Smuggled Through Show Wild Flight on Fifth Day of Conflict With Rumanians

Berlin, July 31.—(By the Associated Press)—The Tugendhat's Budapest correspondent was able to smuggle through the censorship of Bela Kun what he says are the details of the defeat and spontaneous flight of the Hungarian Red army, a defeat which, he asserts, led Bela Kun to hasten to Vienna to treat with the Entente regarding a retirement. The Red offensive against Rumania, the correspondent declared, was inspired by Bela Kun. He hoped to deflect the attention of the troops from the miserable food conditions in Budapest and its vicinity by sending them against Rumania in a last vague hope that they would succeed and, by victory, find themselves in a more prosperous country. There had been countless desertions, however, the correspondent continues. The commander of the army, General Bela Kun, was placed in the hands of General Staff Colonel Jullio, who declared that he was so Bolshewist, he was taking command because he was forced to do so. The situation therefore was unfavorable. At the start the Rumanians were caught by surprise and forced back over the Theis river, but they soon recovered and came back with such strength that the Red Army simply melted away and fled back over the Theis river. The Rumanian cavalry patrol, says the correspondent, saw the entire Red Army in wild flight, having suffered enormous losses. "Bela Kun," the correspondent declares, "sent the army against the Rumanians to avoid a crisis which is now the worse because in their defeat the troops have melted and deserted to such an extent that the army consists only of four divisions and fourteen batteries, most of the guns having been lost in the retreat."

MATTERS BEFORE THE CITY CO. COMMISSIONERS THIS MORNING

Authority for the extension of the sewerage system along Park street as far as the residence of N. E. Moore was recommended at a committee meeting of the common council today. Commissioner Jones explained that this work would be paid for out of maintenance funds and would eventually become necessary in making the connection with the new sewerage system from Hawthorne avenue.

Urban J. Sweeney made application on behalf of a client for a five year lease of the stores on the southern side of the Charlotte street entrance to the city market, commencing May 1 next year. The matter was referred to Commissioner Thornton.

Commissioner Fisher said that if the new tenants were willing to take the lease at an increase he was in favor of it, but the old tenants should be given an opportunity to meet the higher figures. The erection of two electric light posts at the Germain street entrance to the store of M. R. A. Ltd., was recommended.

On motion of Commissioner Bullock the department of harbors was authorized to purchase from G. S. Maye a quantity of timber for harbor work at $96.

The matter of the payment of $450 for a year's rental of the offices occupied by the returned soldiers' employment service was taken up. The mayor said that during the time a representative of the department, Major Johnston, was in the city, the premier had asked the city to contribute to the service by paying for the rent of an office, as was done in other cities in Canada. The council was to receive more particulars about the matter, but the first intimation they had received was a bill for $450 referred to them by the employment service.

Commissioner Fisher said that he was not in favor of paying the bill without first knowing what the province was contributing to it. In view of the fact that the office was assisting local returned soldiers to find employment Commissioner Thornton thought that the bill should be paid this year and further information requested before further liability was assumed.

On motion of Commissioner Jones, a payment of the first year's rent was recommended, with only Commissioner Fisher dissenting.

TRAVELERS HAVE THEIR PART OF CELEBRATION WELL ADVANCED

The enthusiastic manner with which the commercial travelers have taken a hold of their share of the entertainment to be provided for the returned men on the 14th, commends itself to all public spirited citizens.

It is assumed that the travelers will entertain pleasantly and well. Their committee are working to give the boys entertainment that will not soon be forgotten. They will soon be in a position to take the public into their confidence regarding the programme to be offered.

The Belgian government today prohibited temporarily the exportation of Belgian coal to any country.

The Austrian Cabinet Falls

Renner's Government Decides To Resign

ITALIAN RELATIONS BETTER

Tittoni Wards Off the Dangerous Subject of Fiume — Japanese Statesmen's Demand — Wilson Fails to Convince Quartette of Opponents

Vienna, July 31.—(Via Bern)—The Austrian cabinet headed by Dr. Karl Renner has decided to resign.

Austrian governmental affairs have recently been in a rather unsettled state. Last week Dr. Otto Bauer, the foreign minister, resigned his post, largely, it was said, because of dissatisfaction at his failure to obtain important advantages for Austria in the negotiations leading up to the formulation of the peace treaty. Chancellor Renner, however, filled the gap caused by Dr. Bauer's resignation by taking over the duties of the foreign office himself in addition to those of the chancellery.

Italian Relations Better.

Paris, July 31.—(By the Associated Press)—That Signor Tittoni, Italian foreign minister and a member of the Italian peace delegation, has brought about a much better feeling among the great powers toward Italy and Italy's aspirations seems apparent from discussions held in peace conference circles, and articles appearing in the French newspapers.

It is said that Signor Tittoni has studiously refrained from discussing the Adriatic problems and has confined his efforts to looking after Italian interests elsewhere, with the result that much of the irritation created by the long controversy over Fiume is disappearing and the way apparently is being paved for a more amicable consideration of Italian claims in the Adriatic, notwithstanding the split which recently took place between Italian and French soldiers.

SIX TRANSPORTS ON THE WAY HOME WITH OUR MEN

Six steamers are now on their way to Canada bringing more of our boys from the other side and it is expected that another few days will see some more families face about in this city but some homes are still waiting for the return of one in khaki and hoping that one of these ships will have him aboard.

Three of the steamships are due at Halifax—the Cedric and Celtic on Saturday, August 1, and the Adriatic on August 2, the other three at Quebec, the Saturnia on Saturday, the Scotian on Sunday and the Canada on August 7. The Empress of Russia has reached anchor but it is not thought that she had any troops aboard for this district.

NEW BUREAU IS ESTABLISHED; SHOWING ITS WORTH EARLY

A Soldiers' Housing Bureau has been installed in the Imperial Theatre building, with Miss M. H. McCloskey in charge. The object is to have one central place where those who wish to accommodate soldiers during Soldiers' Day can make the necessary application, stating how many they can take and what meals they can serve them. It is requested only that they give the men food and breakfast, as the Commercial Travellers are arranging to feed them at the other two meals. Rest rooms will be installed throughout the city, and signs stretched across the streets showing where to go, making the men feel that they are the guests of the city. Some of the people who live out of the city for the summer, and whose homes here are closed, have offered to pay the expense of the care of men they could accommodate at any place where the committee wish to send them. The office hours at this bureau are from 9.30 to 12 a. m., and from 2 to 5 p. m., and those wishing to make application to entertain soldiers may call M. 4098. From the number of applications taken this morning, the committee are very much encouraged.

Canada May Have New Minister of Finance This Week

Sir Henry Drayton The Man it He Will Accept WILL BE IN OTTAWA FRIDAY

either Dr. Tolmie or Dr. Rutherford For New Minister of Agriculture — No More Cabinet Changes For The Present

(Special to Times).

Ottawa, July 31.—Sir Henry Drayton will return to Ottawa tomorrow. While there is nothing official and Sir Robert Borden is giving away no secrets and is not to be trusted, the general belief is that Sir Thomas White is being kept in the organization and has called together the national committee to meet tomorrow to discuss details.

One thing is certain, the new finance minister will have to be on the job soon in order to make arrangements for the new loan which will have to be floated in the fall. Sir Thomas White is assisting in the organization and has called together the national committee to meet tomorrow to discuss details.

However, to give driving power it is necessary to have a minister on the job by the end of this week. The new minister of agriculture may also be appointed in a few days. It seems to have narrowed down to a choice between Dr. Tolmie of Victoria, B. C., and Dr. Rutherford of the railway commission. Both men are outstanding live stock authorities. Dr. Tolmie looks like the favorite.

Outside of these two appointments the cabinet re-organization will not extend to the present day laborers, but will take place piecemeal, although there will likely be a general shake-up before parliament meets.

LOCKOUT AT BOTH OREST AND HAVRE

From July 31.—(By the Associated Press)—The lockout at Orest and Havre, because of the demands of the dockers' union.

Work on Havre on July 29 was to the effect that the union of employers of the port and city, considering the port workers' union, had decided to stop all work in the port from July 30.

JAPS IN CLASH IN MANCHURIA AND SIXTEEN KILLED

Tokio, Monday, July 29.—(By the Associated Press)—A second official statement on the incident at Kwang Chai places the Japanese losses at sixteen officers and men killed and eighteen others wounded.

The previous report of the incident referred to has been received. The place mentioned probably is Kwang Chai, Ten, about 100 miles west of Kirin in Manchuria.

The communists allege that four Japanese, including an officer, were tortured before death. It is understood that the foreign office has instructed the Japanese minister at Peking to investigate the circumstances and take steps to obtain satisfaction.

The Washington news yesterday passed a bill to deport undesirable aliens. Under it the government may send home enemy aliens now interned in the United States.

WHAT SOME OF THE TAX BILLS SHOW

Some of the citizens are today proposing of brand new tax bills, and others are waiting for the blow to fall. It can hardly be said that those who are already in possession of their birthright are overjoyed at what the little slip of paper means to them. The property owner in Union street, who was called upon to contribute $894.71 last year has received a bill for $475.58, an increase of more than 80%. Other people have received bills which are in the vicinity of $200 more than 1918.

The owner of the $60 increase said that he did not feel increased at the to another bill which was attached, which called for a payment of $26.20, this year's total for the ten-year contribution for the pavement of Union street. He said that he was taxed for the paving and up-keep of other streets in the city and he did not see any reason why he and the abutters in Union street should be also obliged to pay for the pavement in that street.

Would Have Gone Right Through But For The Armistice

Foch Pays Eloquent Tribute to The British

OUR OWN TROOPS INCLUDED

Speaks in London on Smashing Drives After August 1918—Eulogistic Reference to Field Marshal Haig—Freedom of London to Allied Commander

London, July 31.—(Reuter's)—Acknowledging the freedom of the city and the presentation of a sword of honor yesterday, Marshal Foch paid eloquent tribute to the magnificent qualities of the British and dominion armies in the great counter-attacks after August, 1918, and said that after their dash and bravery were unsurpassable. He said they never stopped smashing the German war machine and would have gone through to the Meuse or the Rhine but for the armistice. (Local cheer.)

At Ypres. Marshal Foch's tributes to the British and dominion war efforts were couched in the most glowing terms. For example, referring to the early days of the war, he said: "At Ypres in 1914 did I not see the first British corps resist victoriously the enemy's violent attacks, despite the crushing losses? On the Somme in 1918 your armies gave proof of their incurable ardor, and this gallantry was shared in by the dominion contingents. As for material, guns, ammunition, gas, airplanes, tanks of what magnitude, the production of your country did not show itself capable."

After describing how France, bleeding sorely and tired, struggled, with similar success, against the enemy, he said: "After that who could doubt the outcome of the war? Once again the justice of history was to give its ever unquestionable judgment, namely that nations are clearly invincible when, having sufficiently advanced on the road to civilization, they concentrate without reserve their moral and material resources against their enemies in the struggle for liberty against peoples fighting for domination."

Tribute to Haig. Referring to Field Marshal Haig, Marshal Foch said: "He spared more than any other the lives of his men. What interview we had during those last six months, he from the north and I from the south, despite great distances and fatigue sought each other like two big brothers in order to live in closest intimacy and insure by absolute community of ideas the more and more rapid march of our armies. He had to do so to force events. On November 9th I sent Field Marshal Haig the following telegram, feeling certain I should be joyfully followed by him and his army: "The disorganized enemy, owing to repeated attacks, is giving way along the whole front. It is essential to maintain and accelerate our operations. I call upon the energy and initiative of the commander-in-chief and their armies in order to secure and render decisive the results obtained."

Marshal Foch concluded: "Let us select the glorious day when sleep in France. Faithfully, pliously and jealously, we shall guard them and keep their memory alive, to us they are a testimony and a pledge."

BACK TO OLD HOME FROM STATES BY AUTO ON SUMMER VISIT

Grant Keirstead, of Hartford, Connecticut, and his brother, Ernest Keirstead, of New York City, are registered at the Hotel St. John River in Hartford and New York by automobile, by way of Woodstock. They say that the scenery down St. John River valley compares with that in the White Mountains. They say that there is nothing that will attract the people like good roads and knowledge of what the country is like. Both men are natives of Kings County, born at Cornhill, but have not been down here for some years. They left this morning for their old home where they expect to spend some time visiting friends and relatives.

Grant Keirstead is treasurer and manager of the City Coal Company of Hartford, also treasurer of The Hartford Cement Company and also of the City Auto Company, while Ernest Keirstead is the general manager of the Fairbanks Baking Powder and the Valley Bakers Incorporated of New York City. CLASH OVER THE USE OF NAME OF LABOR MINISTER

Spirited Incident at Hearing of Labor Leaders on Charge of Seditious Conspiracy

Winnipeg, July 31.—A clash between opposing counsel which, for a time threatened to become serious, featured the preliminary trial of the eight labor leaders for seditious conspiracy yesterday afternoon. E. J. Murray, counsel for the defence, cross-examined Alderman J. K. Sparkling, asked in reference to the appointment of Major H. B. Lyle as head of the special police: "Would it be wrong if I suggested that Major Lyle was brought here by Senator G. D. Robertson?"

A. J. Andrews, crown prosecutor, sprang from his chair and said: "That is not a fact, I know very well that it is not a fact." He thought it distinctly improper for the defence to make suggestions not known to be correct. "Nothing could be more ungentlemanly, more cowardly," he said, "than to make a suggestion that reflects upon a minister of the crown when he is not present. Even counsel for the defence can be a gentleman."

Magistrate Noble said if the object of the question was to throw mud on the minister of labor, it should be objected to. The minister should not be made the subject of insinuations by counsel. The incident ended after some further discussion with the statement by Mr. Murray that Senator Robertson was a warm personal friend of his and that he had no intention of throwing discredit on him.
