The state of the s

day by the first Canadian division has since been repeated by all Canadian di-visions. The Canadians have shown their superiority over the enemy at all times and under all circumstances.

Today the enemy is in our midst. Insidiously he is issuing his propaganda to depress us and show that Germany cannot be beaten. But we know that 439 445 440 1314

Toming like a bolt from the blue, this doubtful asset to Germany.

The loss of Russia to the Allies is a doubtful asset to Germany; until she can organize it for industrial and agricultural purposes it is a huge liability, taking hundreds of thousands of troops and police to organize and control it. On the other hand, Russia's place has been taken by the immensely wealthy and powerful democracy of the United States, whose influence on the western front is already being felt.

"THE SECRET MAN"

In producing this drama of the Golden West, care was taken to set the scenes in a typical frontier town with towering mountains in the background. The wild, free atmosphere of hill and plain pervades the picture, while excitement, thrill and danger enliven the action, for it is a story of real manhood in the making—a narrative of adventure and daring deeds. It is a drama with a big theme—that love and friendship, after
