NEW PIERROT SHOW MONDAY

On next Monday and Tuesday evenings the R. M. S. Empress of Ireland Pierrot Troupe will make its first appearance in the Opera House in more than a year. This company of entertainers have proven themselves favorites with the public and also are among the first to help in public charities. The proceeds will be given toward paying for new costumes and stage outfits which were recently purchased by the troupe. The programme is the same as given in St. George's Hall, Liverpool under the patronage of the Earl of Derby and Rt. Hon. the Lord Mayor of Liverpool in January of this year.

THE SPENCER BENEFIT.
The executive of the Women's Canadian Club request that all who received tickets make returns to Miss McGivern at once, so that a complete statement may be published without delay.

THE A. O. H. CELEBRATION OF ST. PATRICK'S DAY
While there will be no celebration of St. Patrick's Day in St. John this year, it is not correct that the reason is because the Hibernian Knights are going to Halifax to participate in a parade in that city. The National President, Mr. Regan, who visited St. John last year sent a request to the local Hibernians recently asking them to observe the day this year by attendance at communion, owing to the fact that it fell in Holy Week. This is what will be done—the members of the local branch of the A. O. H. and those of uniform rank will attend communion in a body in the Cathedral. The information in the Times yesterday was given by an official of the order here, and naturally was believed to be authentic or it would not have been published.

SAYS PROSPECT OF SERVICE TO WEST INDIES GOOD
(Montreal Star)
The delegation from the Montreal board of trade which waited on the government to urge the subsidizing of a direct steamship line between Montreal and the West Indies reported at yesterday's meeting of the council of the board.
The impression received by the delegation, it was stated, was that there was a prospect of the establishment of the desired service.

NO. 2 SALVAGE CORPS MEN HAVE PLEASANT EVENING

The annual banquet of No. 2 Salvage Corps was held last night in their rooms in Main street. Captain Turner presided. Among the guests were Mayor Frink, Chief Kerr, Captain MacRae, Lieutenant Tapley, Director Wisely and the commissioners. After supper, a programme of songs, speeches and musical numbers was carried out. Among those taking part were E. W. R. Ingraham, Mr. Punter, Mr. Alphonse, Edward Bonnell and Mr. Carson. Speeches were made by Mayor Frink and Captain MacRae. Holder's orchestra furnished the music.

RECENT DEATHS

The death of Mr. James Barclay, occurred in Cowansville, P. Q., a few days ago. He was a son of Rev. Dr. James Barclay and was a graduate of McGill. For some time he was the medical doctor on the S. S. Horn, and he had many friends in St. John.

Thorough Examinations
A satisfactory pair of glasses consists of a great deal more than two lenses with a metal mounting.

Such a pair of glasses is the result of several kinds of highly specialized skill combined to meet your requirements.

But for this skill to be of value its work must be based on a careful examination of your eyes. The examinations we make are most thorough and exact, and every pair of glasses we supply is fully guaranteed.

PRESENTATION MARKS THEIR ANNUAL DINNER

Waterbury & Rising Staff Guests of Firm at Pleasant Function

The annual dinner of the employees of Waterbury & Rising Ltd., was held in Bond's restaurant last night. E. L. Rising occupied the chair and C. H. Smyth, manager of the Union street branch, was in the vice-chair. After enjoying an excellent dinner, cigars were lighted and a round of toasts and speeches was made.

The toast to The King was drunk with musical honors. C. H. Smyth proposed the health of the president and general manager, and E. L. Rising responded. He spoke at some length on the bond of hearty co-operation and good feeling that had at all times existed between the firm and staff. In closing he presented to James J. Gillies, one of the traveling staff, a handsome gold watch and emblem in recognition of his twenty-fifth year in the company's service. Mr. Gillies replied feelingly.

Speeches were made by C. H. Smyth, H. W. Rising, Arthur Stilwell, Percy W. Rising and J. C. Featherstone. A very enjoyable programme was carried out, in which E. C. Girvan, Ronald Edwards, W. O'Connor, Miss Jean Walsh, R. Ingelton, Miss Nellie Short and Miss Gladys Fowler took part.

Goodness, worth and excellence are stamped on every suit and overcoat at Pidgeon's.
