Pandemonium Reigns as Judge Declares Their Fate — Prisoners Shout, Pray and Weep—Backbone of the Terrorizing Organization is Broken

(Canadian Press) Viterbo, Italy, July 9.—The verdict of yesterday, finding the Camorrista guilty after two years' trial, as a whole, proved somewhat of a surprise and all are agreed that the severity of the sentences is the last blow to the Camorra, which has practically been annihilated since the arrest of its leaders. The verdict found Corrado Sortino guilty of both murders; Nicolo Morra, Antonio Cerrato and Mariano Di Genera, guilty of the murder of Cuccolo and Giuseppe Savio; guilty of the murder of Cuccolo's wife, Enrico Alfano, the alleged leader of the Camorrista; Giovanni Rapi, Di Marzio and the others are convicted of being instigators of the crime, and members of a criminal organization. NOTED FRENCH AIRMAN FALLS TO HIS DEATH Rene Bedel Strikes Telegraph Wires in Descent and Motor Crushes Him

Chalon-sur-Saone, France, July 9.—Rene Bedel, one of the most experienced aviators, and the holder of the Pommeroy cup for cross-country flying, which he won from Jules Vedrinas, met his death this morning before the eyes of thousands of French troops, who were assembled on the ground at Mourmelon-Le-Grand near here. Bedel, who had come in his monoplane from Villacoublay, near Paris, to participate in the manoeuvres, arrived above the camp after a fine flight. He was about to descend when his monoplane struck telegraph wires which a prevailing haze evidently prevented him from seeing. The machine crashed and Bedel was thrown to the ground. It is believed that he was not killed by the fall, but the motor of his aeroplane fell on his body, and he was crushed almost beyond recognition.

THE BORDEN BALLOON IS NEAR COLLAPSE Disappointment Awaits The Tories in the Old Country

NO NAVAL POLICY Canada's Prime Minister is to Deliver a Speech on Wednesday Night — He Will Go With Pelletier to Gay Paree

(Canadian Press) London, July 9.—It is generally understood that Mr. Borden's speech at the meeting of the R. C. I. on Wednesday evening, will somewhat dispel the popular belief largely inspired from Canada that he has come to London with a "cut and dried" naval policy. On the contrary, it will be found that his attitude today will not vary much from that outlined in his speech in November, 1910, when he said in effect that the pressing needs of complete naval defence would be considered on their merits; that a permanent policy will be carefully considered and discussed and that such action would be taken as would meet the requirements of both cases.

THIRTY MANNERS IN ENGLAND KILLED Cumbrough, Yorkshire, Eng., July 9.—Thirty miners were killed and two injured by a coal dam explosion at thirty-six fathoms in the Cadeby colliery here early this morning.

DEATH OF GILBERT PURDY Many people in St. John will hear, with regret, of the death of Gilbert L. Purdy, son of Gilbert Purdy, and for thirty-six years accountant with the firm of Andrus, Cushing & Co. here, which occurred at the home corner of Queen and Canterbury streets, this morning. Mr. Purdy was one of the prominent citizens. He was a great grandson of Gilbert Purdy, one of the loyalists who resided for many years at Purdy's Point on the St. John river. He was born on October 18, 1832, in the North End, and was educated in John Montgomerie's school there. Later he studied in Mr. Mill's school in Coburg street.

PAINFUL SCALDING. Friends of Mrs. Jeffrey, wife of F. J. Jeffrey of the Consolidated Rubber Company, King street, will regret to learn that she met with painful injuries this morning in their summer home at Rothesay. She was in the kitchen near the range, when a boiler of hot water fell upon her foot and leg, scalding her very painfully. Doctor Fairweather rendered medical aid, and she is resting somewhat easier now. Mrs. Jeffrey will probably be kept at her home for about three weeks.

DECORATIONS. Over the boardwalk carrier in Mill street are being erected three large illuminated letters, "I. C. R." which may be seen from quite a distance, and which, when lighted, will appear very pretty. The North End is adding to its decorations, and flags are now stretched from pole to pole across Main street as far as Douglas avenue. From that down to Inland street there are few decorations, except some on private houses.

CHILD DEAD. Joseph C. the ten weeks' old child of Mrs. and Mrs. Stephen Kane, died this morning at their home in St. Patrick street.
