LATE FASHION TIPS

The paradise plumes or natural yellow are a feature in the new millinery. The very becoming, simple turndown neck frills are found among the new neck-wear for fall.

Some of the newest suits show a slight flare in the skirt of the jacket, whether it be long or short. Many of the evening dresses have trains finished with a large tassel into which the material is gathered. Buckles and slides of various kinds will be very much used during the coming winter season, since they are indispensable accessories to the director's coats.

Striped materials are being very much used for tailored gowns. Generally speaking, they are very becoming, especially if the stripes are comparatively narrow. Even the new tailored collars have not escaped the Robespierre fashion. They have the long pointed effect and roll away from the throat in real Robespierre fashion.

Lacy openwork effects are used very much and are so delicately constructed as to admit of being used interchangeably with laces of moderately light weight. The new laced dresses cling closely to the figure and are made in such measurements that they could not fly out to any extent, even if the laces were drawn out.

Do you know there are many little conveniences about the house that are made in Nickel Plated Ware that can be had at most reasonable prices? If not, come in and let us show you our line of Bath Room Fixtures, Tea Pots, Coffee Pots and other Utensils. Remember—the kind we sell is not the cheap kind that is sold at the bargain counter—it is the dependable kind. Prices reasonable enough to please the most economical.

ALICE LLOYD CARRIES LARGE OPERA HOUSE AUDIENCE BY STORM

Little Miss Fix-it Makes a Great Hit—English Comedienne and Clever Company Win Continuous Applause

Miss Alice Lloyd has added St. John to the many cities in which she has made such a name for herself on both sides of the Atlantic. Little Miss Fix-it told us and she knows whereof she speaks. Almost every seat in the Opera House was occupied last evening when Miss Lloyd and a clever company presented this sparkling musical comedy, and an enthusiastic, delighted audience it proved from the very outset. Miss Lloyd won all hearts and generous and all as she was with her numbers, there were not enough at that to satisfy her applauding audience. She certainly received a most hearty reception, for the whole-hearted way in which St. John theatre patrons express their approval was never exhibited with a greater force.

Miss Lloyd set a new standard in entertaining, so there is no use speaking of comparisons with others seen here in musical comedy. Pretty and captivating with a voice well suited to the songs she sings, a very graceful dancer and above all the possession of a charming simplicity and naturalness in her song renderings, and her acting, she delighted everybody. As the sailor boy in Ship-Ahoy, with a fine imitation of the sailor's roll, in her alluring "Splash Me," and her artistically sung "Where's Your Gettin' At, Eh," and in other numbers, she made a great hit and encore followed an encore. So too, she has sent the haunting air of "Build an Eden for You," floating all around the city. There has been no entertainer to equal her seen on the Opera House boards in musical comedy work in many days, if ever.

Little Miss Fix-it is built around Miss Lloyd and a very bright bit of nonsense it is, marked by witty dialogue, and full of catchy songs and music that keeps one's toes beating a tattoo. While Miss Lloyd naturally makes the performance, there is a strong company in support, notably two excellent comedians.

London Wally's name is known almost as well as that of Miss Lloyd. He gave a most amusing performance in the part of Percy Page, and his partner, "My Little Girl," floating all around the city. There has been no entertainer to equal her seen on the Opera House boards in musical comedy work in many days, if ever. Much of the work falls to James C. Lane, and one more capable than he to take charge of it. He has a rollicking way of it, as assumed by him. He is a very capable actor, but you are inclined to believe that he's just that kind of a chap off the stage. He contributed very largely to the fun of the evening, sang a song or two well and he and Miss Lloyd gave a remarkably good series of imitations. Misses DeLorne, Sessions, Brown and Buckley had the other names, and among the ladies, and Harry Hyde, Victor Foster and Archie Curtis among the men. Mr. Foster's solo and his duet with Miss Lloyd were very entertaining numbers. There is also a good chorus.

The stage plays were very pretty and there were artistic groupings and effective use of the spot light and other stage effects. And we see the success, and that a more thoroughly delighted and satisfied audience has not filled the Opera House. A matinee and evening performance today will conclude the very pleasant visit of Miss Lloyd and her clever company.

In order to bring out the full advantage of linen and correct its drawbacks when used as underwear, such as chilliness, lack of elasticity and durability, another select vegetable fibre—Abassi or Maco—is added to the linen yarn in the making of the thread. The composition of the yarn is the result of more than ten years of investigation and practical experience, and as the thread is made expressly for these garments, no other kind can be produced exactly like the Dr. Deimel Underwear. Sizes 32 to 48, per garment $3.00.

PLANS TO MAKE HIS BABE PERFECT WOMAN

Margaret Grant Could Swim When Eight Months Old and Walk at Ten

Minneapolis, Minn., Oct. 4.—To become the world's most perfect woman physically is the future mapped out for Margaret Terry Hudson Grant, two years and two months old, by her father, Richard Grant, director of track athletics of the University of Minnesota. Ever since she was three weeks old the baby has been training for the place she is expected to fill. Systematic exercises under the careful supervision of her father, who himself was formerly a track star at Yale, and who "made" many Minnesota athletes, is as much a part of little Margaret's daily life as the food she eats.

The exercises have already had wonderful results. Some of the ways in which Margaret differs from other two-year-olds are these:—Every part of her body is perfectly formed. She has a normal chest measurement of nineteen inches and an expansion of nearly two inches. Her biceps muscles measure five inches. She could walk when she was eight months old. She weighed twenty-eight pounds, without the excess of fat that her little body. She can walk up three flights of stairs and back without stopping.

The little girl, who has just begun to talk, delights in her exercises. The more common of these include a wand drill to strengthen and develop her muscular exercises on a horizontal bar, consisting of a cane held in the hand of her father, to which she can hang for forty-five seconds; swinging back and forth while holding to her father's finger, and reclining on the floor and rising without touching her hands to the floor.

CANADA'S GREAT REVENUE
Increase of $17,309,126 in Receipts During Six Months

Ottawa, Oct. 4.—That the Titanic disaster temporarily stopped British immigration to Canada is one of the interesting features of an interesting report as to immigration to Canada from Great Britain. The total immigration from Great Britain for this fiscal year up to the end of August was 95,142, as compared with 91,837 for the corresponding period of last year, an increase of 3,305. The dominion's financial statement for the past six months, made available today, shows a total revenue of $81,378,920, an increase of no less than $17,309,126, as compared with the corresponding period of last year. The increase averages nearly $3,000,000 per month and is the largest on record for any half year in the history of the dominion. The growth of imports, with consequent increase in customs revenue, accounts for the greater part of the total gain. For the six months the customs receipts totalled $55,452,140, a gain of $14,170,011 over last year. Excise revenue totalled $10,152,014, a gain of about one and one-third millions. Postal revenue increased by $600,000. With the growing revenue there have also been growing expenditures. The expenditure on consolidated fund account for the six months totalled $45,931,539, an increase of about $8,000,000, or about 23 per cent. over the first half of the last fiscal year. Capital expenditure, the figures for which are necessarily incomplete, show an exchange of $11,671,983, which is practically the same as for the corresponding period of last year. The net debt of the dominion at the end of September was $313,608,276, a decrease of $3,010,784 during the month and a decrease of over $10,000,000 as compared with the debt on Sept. 30 last year.

EXPLAINED. Merchant (to clerk): "This won't do. Every time you see a '9' you call it a '2'." Clerk: "No, sir; it's a matter of habit. I used to work in a ladies' shoe shop."

"Yes, we are going to be married." "Have you proposed?" "No, not yet." "Then, how do you know she'll have you?" "Why, she's been encouraging me to save money instead of buying flowers and theatre tickets."
