FLORIDA ORANGES AND GRAPE FRUIT. 115 boxes of oranges and 28 boxes of grape fruit, the first shipment from J. S. Gibbon's Florida grove, arrived today for the Christmas trade. Telephone Main 2698.

PRESENT FOR MOTHER. A very good present to give mother is a dozen electro silver spoons. These can be supplied to meet your order at J. Groulx's, 24 Waterloo street. We import the blanks in their new state and silver plate them with a plate that will wear and give the greatest satisfaction.

MOVING TO TORONTO. Amherst News: Miss Marshall Saunders, of Halifax, author of Beautiful Joe and other delightful books, is in town for a few days the guest of Mr. and Mrs. H. W. Rogers. Miss Saunders is en route for Toronto, where she intends in the future to reside. Genuine regret is felt at her leaving Nova Scotia, not only from Halifax, where she has been in hearty and helpful co-operation with all the forward movements, but from the whole province, the removal of so gifted a one is a distinct loss and it is strongly hoped that the lure of her native land will in the near future bring her back to us again.

CARD OF THANKS. James Hurley, of 17 Brittain street, wishes to thank the doctors and nurses at the General Public Hospital for the kind treatment received while under their care, and especially during the operation.

INTO FINE OFFICES. The Great West Life Assurance Co. is removing today from The Telegraph building into its new offices in the Merchants Bank building, Prince William street. This was necessary as larger quarters were necessary. The new offices of the company are very elegant and commodious.

SPECIAL MEETING. A meeting will be held for all waterfront workers, Sunday, Dec. 14 at 2:30 p. m. at Longshoremen's Hall, 85 Water street. All waterfront workers are invited to attend and will be addressed by John T. Joy, president and William F. Desha, secretary of the Atlantic Coast District of the A. L. A. J. E. T. League, International Vice President L. A. and other local speakers.

THE GOOD SHEPHERD HOME. The Sisters of the Good Shepherd, while offering their best wishes for a happy Christmas and a happy New Year to their kind friends and benefactors, also wish to thank them for their past kindness and assure them that anything towards making this Christmas a happy one for their charges will be greatly appreciated, as there are many stockings to be filled and many hearts of God's poor little ones to be made happy, within "the Home of the Good Shepherd."

SANTA CLAUS AT IMPERIAL NEXT

Rich Treat in Store For Children

Next Week — Animal Act at Night

Every afternoon next week at 5:45 o'clock Santa Claus will appear at Imperial Theatre. This is the annual treat for the children gotten up by the Keith people and is now looked upon as a calendar fixture. The novelty this year will be known as "Santa Claus in Jangleland," a fantasy of the Tropics full of hearty laughter and grotesque acrobatics.

The famous Riano Troupe of animal burlesquers, featuring baboons, chimpanzees, lion and eccentric hunter, will arrive early Monday morning with special scenery and other accessories to assist in putting on this bright little act. It is expected Santa Claus will carry out his wireless promise to witness this very funny rough-and-tumble comedy from a seat among the children in the audience. An effort will be made, it is understood, to have him address the little ones from the stage during the animal act, although there is some little fear that the mischievous monkeys may interfere with him.

The first of the week at the Imperial will be marked with special two-reel Lubin feature, entitled, "Self-Convicted." Madame Schmidt will commence her farewell week and on Wednesday and Thursday the absorbing "Mary" series will be resumed, dealing with the heroine's legal mishap over her Silver Star Mine and the introduction of no fewer than two new lovers.

THE SCHOONERS. Schooner Empress, Captain Anderson, arrived this morning from New York with coal for the Consumers' Coal Co. The schooner Myrtle Leaf, Captain Merriam, from Philadelphia with coal for R. P. & W. F. Starr, sailed into port this morning.

Schooner Oriole, Capt. Wilson, came into port this morning with a cargo of pitch and felt for the Caritte, Patterson Co.

EVANGELISTIC. The evangelistic services in Tabernacle Baptist church came to a close last evening after a very successful week. The services have been conducted by Rev. J. D. Wetmore, pastor of the church assisted by Michael Kelly. The services will be resumed after the holiday season. Several candidates will be baptized tomorrow evening.

Band in Carleton Rink Monday evening.
