of St. Paul's Church for the year 1882, submitted to the Congregation at the Annual Meeting on 8th January, 1883.

The Report which the Trustees now submit cannot fail to be, in many ways, satisfactory to the Congregation, for they have the pleasure of stating that the expenditure has been well within the income, though some deficiency of revenue might have been feared in view of the absence of the services of a regular pastor for the Church.
