

THE WORLD'S END IS NEAR

Adventists Believe That the Turkish Crisis Foreshadows the End of the World.

They Base Their Belief Upon the Fulfillment of the Bible Prophecies.

Elwood, Ind., Nov. 22.—In an interview concerning the Adventist belief regarding the present Turkish troubles and their relation to prophecy, Elder W. H. Eberl, of Frankton, Indiana, one of the leading exponents of that belief, said:

"We Seventh Day Adventists believe the Turkish crisis foreshadows the end of the world, the destruction of its kingdoms and the second coming of Jesus Christ. They base our belief upon the fulfillment of the prophecy, and see it in the present movements of nations, the gathering together of the nations to fight the last great battle of the centuries—the battle of Armageddon. The Ottoman power, or Mohammedan power, is the one meant in the ninth chapter of Revelations, to which was to be given a power to torment men five months, or 150 years in prophetic time, when it was to kill men 361 years and 15 days. The Ottoman empire fulfills all these conditions, for it was founded by Osman, July 29, 1299, and for 150 years tormented men, when it became supreme until August 11, 1840. When the 361 years and 15 days ended it prophesied, when its power was dried up to prepare the way of Kings of the East, which was fulfilled when France, Russia, Prussia and England forced their ultimatum on the Mohammedan power August 31, 1840. Thus was fulfilled the first part of the vision of the sixth vial.

"The three unclean spirits were then loosed and went forth to deceive the nations, and they are spiritualism, nihilism and infidelity, and they are doing their work well. They are gathering the nations together to the great battle of Armageddon. The king of the south—possibly the English Power—after overrunning Egypt, Soudan and Turkey, will encamp in the glorious holy mountain in the holy land and the nations will be compelled to bring their mighty armies and munitions of war against this Power and will encamp in the plains of Armageddon.

"The nations are now moving towards that battlefield, and all their terrible implements of modern warfare will be there when the seventh vial is poured, when the battle of Armageddon, which is described in symbols in Revelations xvii:1-21, will result. The great city of the nations will be that tented field, and it will be divided into three parts—the Roman Power, the Mohammedan Power and the other Powers represented. The hall spoken of means cannon balls; the earth on the explosion of the batteries and the lake of fire and brimstone will be the battlefield itself. It will be a battle of annihilation, and the kingdoms of the world will go down to rise no more.

"The United States will probably not be represented in this battle, but it will be among the remnant left to be destroyed afterward. When this battle occurs, as it shortly must, its climax will be the second coming of Christ. The end of all things is even now at the door, and the nations cannot long struggle the Turkish complications, as the unrest of the nations is urging them on to bring about these things, for fear of which nations are trembling. The time is near, watch."

THE HOUSESMITHS STRIKE.

Likely to Throw 40,000 Men Out of Work in New York.

New York, Nov. 22.—Delegates of the housemiths and bridgebuilders are reported to have demanded that the delegates of all the other unions call out their men in all cases where non-union housemiths were employed in the event of being called upon to do so. The Iron League is said to contemplate a general lockout of all the union men employed by its members. Such action would throw 40,000 men out of work. The striking housemiths have caused the electric lights to be cut off on several large jobs of the J. B. J. M. Cornell and Milliken Bros., so that work cannot be carried on at night. The strike managers called on the hoisting engineers, derrickmen and plasterers on several buildings, and they quit work.

WALLER WILL BE FREED.

Reported Amnesty for All Political Prisoners in Madagascar.

Washington, Nov. 22.—Although the state department absolutely refuses to confirm or deny a report that the French government has refused to furnish the record in the Waller case, some difficulty, it is known, has been encountered in procuring this document. Just what the nature of the trouble is cannot be learned, but it is understood that the application for the record is not regarded by the French government as a matter of right to the United States, and it is assumed that if our application takes more the shape of a request than a demand the necessary documents may be forthcoming.

Awarded Highest Honors—World's Fair—DR. J. C. WOOD'S

CREAM BAKING POWDER MOST PERFECT MADE. A pure Grape Cream of Tartar Powder. Free from Ammonia, Alum or any other adulterant. 40 YEARS THE STANDARD.

Little drops of nicotina... Make the owner suffer. An the dropper lean.

Meanwhile the Waller case itself may be suddenly settled, so far as the liberation of Waller is concerned, by the voluntary action of the French government, as word has come here from official sources to the effect that it is contemplated to proclama amnesty for all political prisoners taken in Madagascar, which would include Waller, unless some special notice be taken of his case and claim.

PRINCESS AND DRUMMER

New York Commercial Man Elopes With an Alleged Norwegian Princess

And Make for San Francisco, Where the Defaultering Husband is Put in Jail.

San Francisco, Nov. 22.—Behind the arrest of Max Marx, alias Henry Martin, last Monday, on a charge of adultery, there seems to be a scandal which embraces two continents and a romance which reaches a family of royal blood in far-away Norway. At least this is so if any faith may be placed on the representations of the woman in the case, who is a handsome and buxom blonde with plenty of dash and money. Marx was formerly a drummer for the Lancaster Silver Plating Company, of Lancaster, Pa., drawing a salary of $300 a month. He was married to a Lancaster woman and the issue of the marriage consists of four children. About two years ago Marx became acquainted with a Norwegian woman in New York, named Marguerite Knudson, who, it is said, claims to be of royal Norwegian blood. Marguerite was then a woman of experience and of considerable means. The experience is said to have consisted of a liaison with a wealthy New Yorker, whom she induced to desert wife and family for the sake of living with her. After she had acquired $40,000 or so of his money, so the story goes, he committed suicide in a fit of remorse and despair. The Knudson woman's season of mourning was, however, brief, for she seems to have found as ardent a lover in Marx as she had in the man who had grown weary of life. When he left New York on a business trip to Europe, Marguerite Knudson went with him, the two being known as Mr. and Mrs. Henry Martin. They visited Paris, Berlin, Dresden, Vienna and other European cities before their return, living in a luxurious style. On coming temporarily separated, she taking up her residence in an elegant establishment, which she furnished out of her own exchequer, and he, resuming the name of Max Marx, returned to Philadelphia, Pa., to found the institution of the Philadelphia on business for the firm that Marx had eloped with the Norwegian princess and was on his way to California via Panama. As soon as the discovery was made steps were taken to arrest Marx, and he was arrested in Philadelphia here and for that purpose a correspondence was opened with Philip Bernard, a gentleman who has known Marx and his wife from childhood. "Mr. and Mrs. Henry Martin" arrived in this port as passengers on the Pacific Mail Steamship City of Panama on the 12th instant and they put up at the Palace Hotel. "Mrs. Martin" is an attractive woman, has a well rounded figure, which is elegantly dressed in silks and laces and diamonds and other costly jewelry. She is becoming a Norwegian princess. When the couple arrived at the Palace she was accompanied by six large Saratoga trunks, which were loaded with her wardrobe. But a Kennedy was on the track of the guilty pair in the person of Bernard, who, after accumulating enough evidence to establish the illicit relations between Max Marx and Marguerite Knudson, decided to have the former arrested and prosecuted as a runaway for that purpose. It was intended to make the arrest on Friday last, but Marx was warned by someone of his danger and he and the princess suddenly disappeared from the Palace. Bernard discovered, however, that they had gone to Oakland and he finally found Marx there, told him what he was after, that a warrant was out for his arrest and that it would be served unless he made suitable provision for his wife and children in Lancaster, who were in a destitute condition. Marx was apparently favorable to any plan that would relieve him from the odium of arrest and exposure, and is said to have sent $200 to his family. Bernard insists, however, that ample provision should be made for them. Pending the consummation of these arrangements for Marx's family, "Mr. and Mrs. Martin" came back from Oakland and were booked at the Baldwin. On Monday Marx became obstreperous and ugly and abusive, and he was placed under arrest and subsequently released on bail. Marx is now out on $250 bail pending his preliminary examination, which will take place next Monday. Since Marx's arrest, "Mr. and Mrs. Henry Martin" have left the Baldwin and "Mrs. Martin," otherwise the Norwegian princess, Marguerite Knudson has disappeared from town.

Through the government secret service agents it was learned that the schooner was repaired, her name changed, and she was otherwise altered so that she could not be identified. It is understood that the schooner has landed the Chinamen on the island of St. Clement, which is about 40 miles due south of San Pedro. Trading boats would be to have these trading vessels put on the mainland. The schooner's office has received no information from the collector of the department, although deputies of the collector admit that it is possible for them to be there and the office know nothing about it.

THREATENED TO KILL

Women Stopped on Government Street Last Night and Threatened.

Daniel Webster Jones, a colored man, was in the police court this morning charged with threatening to murder Mary Jones, a white woman, and her companion, Emily Patterson, who were going along Government street shortly after midnight, when they were accosted by Jones, who demanded that Mary accompany him. When she refused, he drew a large knife and made a feint to draw it across her throat, said if she did not come he would kill her. He at the same time intimated that it would not be the first time that the knife had been used to kill a woman. The police arrested Jones and Patterson and Jones had been placed under arrest by Sergeant Hawton and Officer Carter before he had time to carry out his threat. This morning the prisoner was held in the city jail for one year in the sum of $200, in two sureties of $100 each, or in default three months' imprisonment. As he has no money or responsible friends, he will go to jail.

A great many complaints have been made lately regarding women being frightened by men at night. A few evenings ago while a lady was on her way home along Douglas street a man jumped out from the shadow of St. John's church and chased her. The gentleman was coming along on the ruffian turned down Herald street. The men are supposed to belong to a party of vamps who have arrived recently. The police are keeping them under surveillance to keep the peace for one year in the sum of $200, in two sureties of $100 each, or in default three months' imprisonment. As he has no money or responsible friends, he will go to jail.

SENATOR SHERMAN ON SILVER

He Thinks the Free Coinage Craze is on the Wane.

New York, Nov. 22.—Senator John Sherman, in an interview with a United Press reporter to-night, said the relations between himself, Warner Miller and Harrison were quite friendly. He believed Harrison should declare his position regarding his candidacy. He did not consider the ex-President popular with the masses. Referring to Carlisle the senator stated that the basic error of the secretary's speech was his idea that legal tenders should be abolished. The great mistake lay in the action of the administration in tampering with the gold reserve. They should have issued short-term bonds, five years, redeemable in legal tender notes, which would be taken up by the bank at three per cent, instead of issuing gold bonds at 4, enabling foreign bankers to clear $11,000,000.

The senator did not know when the Republican would organize the senate. When it came to the monetary issue the east would be arrayed against the west. As long as Cleveland is President there would be no silver legislation. He thought the free silver "craze" on the wane.

Dr. TAPPE'S ASTHMA CURES ASTHMA CURES FREE. Little drops of nicotina... Make the owner suffer. An the dropper lean.

SUSPICIOUS SCHOONER.

Southern California Customs Officials Looking for a B. C. Schooner.

Said to Have Landed a Cargo of Chinamen and Opium on a Southern Island.

A Los Angeles dispatch says: There is a rakish little craft somewhere along the Los Angeles or Ventura coast that the deputies of Collector of the Port John Gaffey are looking for, and would very much like to sight. Some time ago a small schooner cleared from Vancouver, British Columbia, ostensibly for Mexican ports. As a matter of fact, it was afterwards learned that the little vessel, the Lena, was repaired, her name changed, and she was otherwise altered so that she could not be identified.

Through the government secret service agents it was learned that the schooner was repaired, her name changed, and she was otherwise altered so that she could not be identified. It is understood that the schooner has landed the Chinamen on the island of St. Clement, which is about 40 miles due south of San Pedro. Trading boats would be to have these trading vessels put on the mainland. The schooner's office has received no information from the collector of the department, although deputies of the collector admit that it is possible for them to be there and the office know nothing about it.

One of Mr. Gaffey's deputies said today: "Why, there are innumerable places between San Juan Capistrano and San Juan Capistrano where the little schooner could have landed. I do not think, though, it would have been possible to have landed any Chinamen at San Clement. Still we know the schooner left Vancouver, British Columbia, in this collection district and we propose to see to it that she does not land. She is not flying the United States flag. Our information is positive that she is not bound for the ports for which she is licensed. This probably refers to the schooner Henrietta, which left here several weeks ago."

THE ASSIZES.

Grand Jury Presentation—Chinatown Gaming Cases.

The assizes were resumed to-day. Regina vs. W. R. Jackson, charged with keeping a common gaming house on Placard street, was the first case. The case first came up in the police court in July 1894, but for one reason and another has been shelved until the present time. Four Chinese witnesses were examined by the crown, and Mr. Elyson, who appeared for the defence, said no case had been made out, and he would not call any witnesses. His Lordship advised the jury that there was not sufficient evidence on which to convict, and without leaving their seats the jury returned a verdict of "not guilty."

THE ASSIZES.

Grand Jury Presentation—Chinatown Gaming Cases.

The assizes were resumed to-day. Regina vs. W. R. Jackson, charged with keeping a common gaming house on Placard street, was the first case. The case first came up in the police court in July 1894, but for one reason and another has been shelved until the present time. Four Chinese witnesses were examined by the crown, and Mr. Elyson, who appeared for the defence, said no case had been made out, and he would not call any witnesses. His Lordship advised the jury that there was not sufficient evidence on which to convict, and without leaving their seats the jury returned a verdict of "not guilty."

THE ASSIZES.

Grand Jury Presentation—Chinatown Gaming Cases.

The assizes were resumed to-day. Regina vs. W. R. Jackson, charged with keeping a common gaming house on Placard street, was the first case. The case first came up in the police court in July 1894, but for one reason and another has been shelved until the present time. Four Chinese witnesses were examined by the crown, and Mr. Elyson, who appeared for the defence, said no case had been made out, and he would not call any witnesses. His Lordship advised the jury that there was not sufficient evidence on which to convict, and without leaving their seats the jury returned a verdict of "not guilty."

THE ASSIZES.

Grand Jury Presentation—Chinatown Gaming Cases.

The assizes were resumed to-day. Regina vs. W. R. Jackson, charged with keeping a common gaming house on Placard street, was the first case. The case first came up in the police court in July 1894, but for one reason and another has been shelved until the present time. Four Chinese witnesses were examined by the crown, and Mr. Elyson, who appeared for the defence, said no case had been made out, and he would not call any witnesses. His Lordship advised the jury that there was not sufficient evidence on which to convict, and without leaving their seats the jury returned a verdict of "not guilty."

Dr. TAPPE'S ASTHMA CURES ASTHMA CURES FREE. Little drops of nicotina... Make the owner suffer. An the dropper lean.

THE ASSIZES.

Grand Jury Presentation—Chinatown Gaming Cases.

The assizes were resumed to-day. Regina vs. W. R. Jackson, charged with keeping a common gaming house on Placard street, was the first case. The case first came up in the police court in July 1894, but for one reason and another has been shelved until the present time. Four Chinese witnesses were examined by the crown, and Mr. Elyson, who appeared for the defence, said no case had been made out, and he would not call any witnesses. His Lordship advised the jury that there was not sufficient evidence on which to convict, and without leaving their seats the jury returned a verdict of "not guilty."

THE ASSIZES.

Grand Jury Presentation—Chinatown Gaming Cases.

The assizes were resumed to-day. Regina vs. W. R. Jackson, charged with keeping a common gaming house on Placard street, was the first case. The case first came up in the police court in July 1894, but for one reason and another has been shelved until the present time. Four Chinese witnesses were examined by the crown, and Mr. Elyson, who appeared for the defence, said no case had been made out, and he would not call any witnesses. His Lordship advised the jury that there was not sufficient evidence on which to convict, and without leaving their seats the jury returned a verdict of "not guilty."

THE ASSIZES.

Grand Jury Presentation—Chinatown Gaming Cases.

The assizes were resumed to-day. Regina vs. W. R. Jackson, charged with keeping a common gaming house on Placard street, was the first case. The case first came up in the police court in July 1894, but for one reason and another has been shelved until the present time. Four Chinese witnesses were examined by the crown, and Mr. Elyson, who appeared for the defence, said no case had been made out, and he would not call any witnesses. His Lordship advised the jury that there was not sufficient evidence on which to convict, and without leaving their seats the jury returned a verdict of "not guilty."

THE ASSIZES.

Grand Jury Presentation—Chinatown Gaming Cases.

The assizes were resumed to-day. Regina vs. W. R. Jackson, charged with keeping a common gaming house on Placard street, was the first case. The case first came up in the police court in July 1894, but for one reason and another has been shelved until the present time. Four Chinese witnesses were examined by the crown, and Mr. Elyson, who appeared for the defence, said no case had been made out, and he would not call any witnesses. His Lordship advised the jury that there was not sufficient evidence on which to convict, and without leaving their seats the jury returned a verdict of "not guilty."

THE ASSIZES.

Grand Jury Presentation—Chinatown Gaming Cases.

The assizes were resumed to-day. Regina vs. W. R. Jackson, charged with keeping a common gaming house on Placard street, was the first case. The case first came up in the police court in July 1894, but for one reason and another has been shelved until the present time. Four Chinese witnesses were examined by the crown, and Mr. Elyson, who appeared for the defence, said no case had been made out, and he would not call any witnesses. His Lordship advised the jury that there was not sufficient evidence on which to convict, and without leaving their seats the jury returned a verdict of "not guilty."

THE ASSIZES.

Grand Jury Presentation—Chinatown Gaming Cases.

The assizes were resumed to-day. Regina vs. W. R. Jackson, charged with keeping a common gaming house on Placard street, was the first case. The case first came up in the police court in July 1894, but for one reason and another has been shelved until the present time. Four Chinese witnesses were examined by the crown, and Mr. Elyson, who appeared for the defence, said no case had been made out, and he would not call any witnesses. His Lordship advised the jury that there was not sufficient evidence on which to convict, and without leaving their seats the jury returned a verdict of "not guilty."

Dr. TAPPE'S ASTHMA CURES ASTHMA CURES FREE. Little drops of nicotina... Make the owner suffer. An the dropper lean.

WILL OBEY MOTHER-IN-LAW.

Mrs. Mooney Triumphs Over Her Son-in-Law, Lord Sholto.

Oakland, Nov. 21.—There was no band of music at the Sixteenth street station last night to greet Mrs. Mooney, mother-in-law of Lord Sholto Douglas, when she stepped off the train. Mrs. Mooney felt, however, that her home-coming was in the nature of a triumph. Her son, Thomas Addis, was on hand to meet her and to hear the news of her conquest from her own lips. "I feel that I have returned in triumph," said Mrs. Mooney last night. Lord Sholto has been subdued and he has promised to be a loving and obedient son-in-law. He was inclined to give me a battle when I first arrived, but he soon got over that and came to my terms. He has promised that in the future he will write me respectful letters. I won every point I made against him. In the first place I took him to task for writing me an insulting letter. He apologized for that in a most humble way and said it would never happen again. Then I demanded that he pay me the $20 he borrowed from me and he did so, and gave me a great deal more. I told him that I wanted him to allow my daughter to write me whenever she pleased, and he agreed to this. I simply had my way in everything. His lordship asked me what my terms were, and I told him and he agreed to them. Before I left we were the best of friends, and now I guess everything is all right. His lordship understands me better than he did a week ago. He asked me why I had his letter printed in the paper, and I asked him why he wrote it. That was all the satisfaction he got out of me.

WILL OBEY MOTHER-IN-LAW.

Mrs. Mooney Triumphs Over Her Son-in-Law, Lord Sholto.

Oakland, Nov. 21.—There was no band of music at the Sixteenth street station last night to greet Mrs. Mooney, mother-in-law of Lord Sholto Douglas, when she stepped off the train. Mrs. Mooney felt, however, that her home-coming was in the nature of a triumph. Her son, Thomas Addis, was on hand to meet her and to hear the news of her conquest from her own lips. "I feel that I have returned in triumph," said Mrs. Mooney last night. Lord Sholto has been subdued and he has promised to be a loving and obedient son-in-law. He was inclined to give me a battle when I first arrived, but he soon got over that and came to my terms. He has promised that in the future he will write me respectful letters. I won every point I made against him. In the first place I took him to task for writing me an insulting letter. He apologized for that in a most humble way and said it would never happen again. Then I demanded that he pay me the $20 he borrowed from me and he did so, and gave me a great deal more. I told him that I wanted him to allow my daughter to write me whenever she pleased, and he agreed to this. I simply had my way in everything. His lordship asked me what my terms were, and I told him and he agreed to them. Before I left we were the best of friends, and now I guess everything is all right. His lordship understands me better than he did a week ago. He asked me why I had his letter printed in the paper, and I asked him why he wrote it. That was all the satisfaction he got out of me.

WILL OBEY MOTHER-IN-LAW.

Mrs. Mooney Triumphs Over Her Son-in-Law, Lord Sholto.

Oakland, Nov. 21.—There was no band of music at the Sixteenth street station last night to greet Mrs. Mooney, mother-in-law of Lord Sholto Douglas, when she stepped off the train. Mrs. Mooney felt, however, that her home-coming was in the nature of a triumph. Her son, Thomas Addis, was on hand to meet her and to hear the news of her conquest from her own lips. "I feel that I have returned in triumph," said Mrs. Mooney last night. Lord Sholto has been subdued and he has promised to be a loving and obedient son-in-law. He was inclined to give me a battle when I first arrived, but he soon got over that and came to my terms. He has promised that in the future he will write me respectful letters. I won every point I made against him. In the first place I took him to task for writing me an insulting letter. He apologized for that in a most humble way and said it would never happen again. Then I demanded that he pay me the $20 he borrowed from me and he did so, and gave me a great deal more. I told him that I wanted him to allow my daughter to write me whenever she pleased, and he agreed to this. I simply had my way in everything. His lordship asked me what my terms were, and I told him and he agreed to them. Before I left we were the best of friends, and now I guess everything is all right. His lordship understands me better than he did a week ago. He asked me why I had his letter printed in the paper, and I asked him why he wrote it. That was all the satisfaction he got out of me.

WILL OBEY MOTHER-IN-LAW.

Mrs. Mooney Triumphs Over Her Son-in-Law, Lord Sholto.

Oakland, Nov. 21.—There was no band of music at the Sixteenth street station last night to greet Mrs. Mooney, mother-in-law of Lord Sholto Douglas, when she stepped off the train. Mrs. Mooney felt, however, that her home-coming was in the nature of a triumph. Her son, Thomas Addis, was on hand to meet her and to hear the news of her conquest from her own lips. "I feel that I have returned in triumph," said Mrs. Mooney last night. Lord Sholto has been subdued and he has promised to be a loving and obedient son-in-law. He was inclined to give me a battle when I first arrived, but he soon got over that and came to my terms. He has promised that in the future he will write me respectful letters. I won every point I made against him. In the first place I took him to task for writing me an insulting letter. He apologized for that in a most humble way and said it would never happen again. Then I demanded that he pay me the $20 he borrowed from me and he did so, and gave me a great deal more. I told him that I wanted him to allow my daughter to write me whenever she pleased, and he agreed to this. I simply had my way in everything. His lordship asked me what my terms were, and I told him and he agreed to them. Before I left we were the best of friends, and now I guess everything is all right. His lordship understands me better than he did a week ago. He asked me why I had his letter printed in the paper, and I asked him why he wrote it. That was all the satisfaction he got out of me.

WILL OBEY MOTHER-IN-LAW.

Mrs. Mooney Triumphs Over Her Son-in-Law, Lord Sholto.

Oakland, Nov. 21.—There was no band of music at the Sixteenth street station last night to greet Mrs. Mooney, mother-in-law of Lord Sholto Douglas, when she stepped off the train. Mrs. Mooney felt, however, that her home-coming was in the nature of a triumph. Her son, Thomas Addis, was on hand to meet her and to hear the news of her conquest from her own lips. "I feel that I have returned in triumph," said Mrs. Mooney last night. Lord Sholto has been subdued and he has promised to be a loving and obedient son-in-law. He was inclined to give me a battle when I first arrived, but he soon got over that and came to my terms. He has promised that in the future he will write me respectful letters. I won every point I made against him. In the first place I took him to task for writing me an insulting letter. He apologized for that in a most humble way and said it would never happen again. Then I demanded that he pay me the $20 he borrowed from me and he did so, and gave me a great deal more. I told him that I wanted him to allow my daughter to write me whenever she pleased, and he agreed to this. I simply had my way in everything. His lordship asked me what my terms were, and I told him and he agreed to them. Before I left we were the best of friends, and now I guess everything is all right. His lordship understands me better than he did a week ago. He asked me why I had his letter printed in the paper, and I asked him why he wrote it. That was all the satisfaction he got out of me.

WILL OBEY MOTHER-IN-LAW.

Mrs. Mooney Triumphs Over Her Son-in-Law, Lord Sholto.

Oakland, Nov. 21.—There was no band of music at the Sixteenth street station last night to greet Mrs. Mooney, mother-in-law of Lord Sholto Douglas, when she stepped off the train. Mrs. Mooney felt, however, that her home-coming was in the nature of a triumph. Her son, Thomas Addis, was on hand to meet her and to hear the news of her conquest from her own lips. "I feel that I have returned in triumph," said Mrs. Mooney last night. Lord Sholto has been subdued and he has promised to be a loving and obedient son-in-law. He was inclined to give me a battle when I first arrived, but he soon got over that and came to my terms. He has promised that in the future he will write me respectful letters. I won every point I made against him. In the first place I took him to task for writing me an insulting letter. He apologized for that in a most humble way and said it would never happen again. Then I demanded that he pay me the $20 he borrowed from me and he did so, and gave me a great deal more. I told him that I wanted him to allow my daughter to write me whenever she pleased, and he agreed to this. I simply had my way in everything. His lordship asked me what my terms were, and I told him and he agreed to them. Before I left we were the best of friends, and now I guess everything is all right. His lordship understands me better than he did a week ago. He asked me why I had his letter printed in the paper, and I asked him why he wrote it. That was all the satisfaction he got out of me.

Dr. TAPPE'S ASTHMA CURES ASTHMA CURES FREE. Little drops of nicotina... Make the owner suffer. An the dropper lean.

CARTER'S LITTLE LIVER PILLS. CURE SICK HEADACHE. Headache, yet Carter's Little Liver Pills are equally valuable in Constipation, such as Dizziness, Nausea, Drowsiness, Distress, etc. While their most remarkable success has been shown in curing Even if they only cured.

CURE SICK HEADACHE. Headache, yet Carter's Little Liver Pills are equally valuable in Constipation, such as Dizziness, Nausea, Drowsiness, Distress, etc. While their most remarkable success has been shown in curing Even if they only cured.

CAPTAIN TOM WRIGHT.

Rev. Dr. Damon Refers to the Sterling Qualities of the Dead Mariner.

Speaking at the funeral of the late Captain Tom Wright, which took place at Seattle on Wednesday, Rev. Dr. Damon, an old friend of the deceased, mentioned several incidents that happened in his presence during the early traffic on the Fraser River as an example of the manliness of the man. "I remember one trip I made with Captain Tom," said the speaker, "that will never be effaced from my memory. We were passing up the river and met or rather ran onto a boat containing a party of surveyors. They hailed us and we slowed up to take them on board, but in some manner they got close to the paddle boxes containing the wheels and the boat was sucked under by the eddies. Some of the party were saved, but two of the men could not be tried to put the steamer about and out of the way of the men, and when he was told that two of the men had been lost a look of indescribable sadness came over his face that told me away down in his big heart he was hurt. This was when we were both young, and so long ago that one would expect to lose sight of such things, but I tell you, friends, when the actions of such a noble man as Captain Tom Wright were impressed in one's soul they could never be forgotten."

HARRISON A CANDIDATE.

The Fact No Secret Among the ex-President's Political Friends.

Philadelphia, Nov. 23.—Governor Claude Matthews of Indiana, who arrived here on a visit to-day, stated in an interview that Harrison is unquestionably a candidate for the presidency. The fact is no secret among the ex-president's political friends, and he will receive the solid Indiana delegation and others of the large following heretofore credited to McKinley.

BROWNSVILLE BAY MURDERER.

Montgomery Waives the Preliminary Examination.

Brownsville, Or., Nov. 23.—Lloyd Montgomery, 18 years of age, to-day waived the preliminary examination on the charge of murdering his father and mother and D. B. McKeecher on Tuesday. Young Montgomery was taken to Albany and placed in the county jail. The grand jury will convene next Monday to investigate the charge of murder against him.

A FIRE INSURANCE WAR.

Is Threatened Among the Companies Operating in San Francisco.

San Francisco, Nov. 23.—Another fire insurance war is threatening. Of six or three companies doing business in this city fifteen do not contribute to the supply of the fire patrol. The remaining forty-eight are divided, about half desiring to withdraw and abolish the patrol and account of the action by the patrol and fifteen. The other companies state that the patrol will be maintained at any cost, and if necessary they will resort to the obsolete system of placing a brass plate on buildings covered by them, and the patrol will be instructed not to engage in salvage where plates are not displayed. If this threat is carried out a bitter war will be precipitated, which cannot fail to spread broadcast.

THE SMUGGLERS' PICNIC.

Newfoundland Authorities Are Confronted With a Peculiar Trouble.

St. Johns, Nfld., Nov. 23.—The smugglers, whose release has been expected for the past few days, were offered their liberty conditional upon paying fines proportioned to their sentences and imprisonment, but they rejected these terms, insisting upon an unconditional release, as they claim they have all suffered at least a month's incarceration. The authorities are now in a quandary. They expected the offer would be eagerly accepted and they are now afraid that they will be compelled to release the prisoners next week, owing to the popular clamor, without obtaining any fines whatever.

SECRET OF HIS SUCCESS.

Barney Barnato, the Kafir King, is a Canadian by Birth.

Kingston, Ont., Nov. 23.—B. W. Folger, the King of the Kafirs, was born at Eagle Creek, Pakenham, Ont., on the line of the Kingston and Pembroke railway, where he has a brother now residing.

Advertisement for Dr. Tappe's Asthma Cures, featuring a bottle of medicine and text: 'DR. TAPPE'S ASTHMA CURES ASTHMA CURES FREE. Little drops of nicotina... Make the owner suffer. An the dropper lean.'