LOCAL NEWS.

A large crowd of Woodstock Presbyterians are picnicking at St. Andrews today.

Special.—Soft wood and kindling cut in stove lengths, $1.15 per big load at Watters', Walker's wharf. Telephone 612.

H. L. Coombs has made an assignment to Charles H. McDonald, accountant with H. W. deForest, and a meeting of creditors for appointment of inspectors and other business will be held next week.

Channey Coleman, of Fredericton, accompanied by his trainer, S. H. Sterling, expects to leave on Sept. 14 for Montreal, where he will compete in the Dominion Championship races. He is riding exceptionally well this season and is confident of holding his own against other Canadian riders. His friends will wish him every success.

Miss Vaughan, of the retail millinery department of Manchester, Robertson, Allison, Limited, has returned from her business trip to New York, after having gained a thorough knowledge of the styles now in vogue and to be worn for the coming fall season.

The September number of the Designer is now on sale at F. A. Dykeman & Co's. This number will be found particularly interesting, as it contains the newest and prettiest ideas for fall styles. An article on Early Fall Millinery will be especially helpful, and the entire book is brim full of suggestions of all sorts of the latest fashions.

Joseph Corkery, of Main street, was almost drowned early Tuesday evening. With a companion he was playing about Taylor's coal sheds and fell into the water. Daniel Bradley heard cries for assistance, and running to the wharf plunged off and found young Corkery struggling under the wheel of a tug. Mr. Bradley seized him and handed him up to a man on the wharf. The lad is little the worse for his experience.

St. David's Sunday school picnic is being held today at Watters' Landing and is well attended. The Beatrice Waring left at half-past nine o'clock with the first party and again at half-past one with another crowd, and will make a third trip at a quarter past six with those who wish to enjoy the sail. The picnickers will return at half-past seven.

REV. MR. BEATTY RESIGNS.

After nearly ten years of Christian work in this city, Rev. B. Beatty has resigned his charge of the People's Mission, in order to be able to devote his whole time to special evangelistic work. Mr. Beatty's work as an evangelist is heartily testified to by many clergymen and others with whom he has worked, including the Rev. John Craig, pastor of Kaye street Methodist church, Halifax. Rev. B. H. Nobles of St. John, Rev. R. M. Browne of Amherst Head, Joseph Salter of North Sydney and Dr. Woodbury.

PHANTOM COMPETES AT ST. JOHN.

Chas. Machum's graceful and speedy yacht, Phantom, sailed today for St. John, where she will compete with the class C boats of the Royal Kennebec Yacht Club in the races on Saturday. The St. John Yachtsmen have been very anxious for some time since hearing of the sailing qualities of the Phantom, to match her against some of their speedy craft and now they will have the opportunity. The Phantom will probably compete with such boats as the Cytile and Robin Hood, and will give them a hustle to win.—Gleaner.

A FRAUD AT THE DEPOT.

A suspicious looking character who has been lurking around the Union depot since Monday was ordered from the depot this morning by Officer Collins. The man who cannot be more than twenty-one years old looks like a foreigner. He has been pretending all along that he could not speak English, but gave himself away this morning when spoken to in French. Detective Killen's fertile mind devised the trick and it had the desired effect. The man was immediately given the run.

THE C. P. R. is being supplied with nearly 1,000 tons of Hard Coal by Gibbon & Co.

RAILWAY PICNIC.

The committee in charge of the railway men's picnic held a meeting last night when it was unanimously decided to hold the outing on Saturday, August 29th. The picnic will in all probability be held at Sussex, but arrangements for the use of the grounds there will not be completed for a day or two.

ATTEMPTED ASSAULT.

Serious Charge Made Against Nicholas Burns of Kingsville by Mary Clarke of Milford.

Nicholas Burns, a married man, with a family, residing at Kingsville, near Fairville, was arrested yesterday by Officer Lawson on a warrant issued by Magistrate Masson of Fairville. The charge against him is attempt to rape, and the information was laid by Miss Mary Clarke, of Milford, who alleges that Burns assaulted her on Tuesday night.

Miss Clarke says that she was going from Fairville to her home in Milford on Tuesday evening between nine and ten o'clock, when she met Burns. The latter, Miss Clarke says, caught her and threw her violently against a barbed wire fence. Her clothing was torn and she was bleeding from wounds caused by the wire, but she fought her assailant and screamed for help until her cries attracted the attention of a neighbor, who came to her aid.

Burns was last night released on $1,000 bail, and will be brought before Magistrate Masson for examination on Tuesday.

PERSONAL.

Rev. G. M. Campbell is home from Charlottetown.

Miss Kate O'Neil, of St. John, who has been visiting friends in Halifax, Amherst and Moncton has returned home.

William H. Parlee, principal of the Victoria school, returned to the city today on the Boston express.

Rev. B. N. Nobles, of Carleton, was a passenger on the Atlantic express this morning.

Miss Jessie Armstrong, of St. Andrews, is visiting in St. John.

Mrs. MacLaren and the Misses MacLaren of St. John, are guests at Kennedy's hotel, St. Andrews.

Rev. H. E. Thomas, wife and child, who have been visiting Mrs. Thomas' home in Jacksonville, came to St. John on Thursday, where they will spend a few days with Mr. Thomas' parents, before returning to their own home in Campbellton.

Miss Pauline Johnston, St. John, is visiting Mrs. Hugh Davis, Woodstock.

The Rev. B. N. Nobles, the pastor of the St. John, West, Baptist church, he was in Woodstock last week. He preached on Sunday in Jacksonville.

Where he was pastor of the Baptist church seventeen years ago. Mr. Nobles' old friends were very glad to see him.—Woodstock Despatch.

Andrew Clements, senior partner of the firm of Andrew Clements & Sons, of London, Liverpool, Manchester and Leith, arrived in the city today on the Atlantic express.

James Farrell, of Fredericton, is at the Dufferin.

Lenfest Ruggles and Walter G. Ruggles are staying at the Dufferin.

J. B. Pollock, of Halifax, is at the Victoria.

Mr. and Mrs. H. Trux, of Montreal, are stopping at the Victoria.

IT WASN'T COKE.

Last evening's Globe had a despatch from Hampton to the effect that Coke O'Brien was one of the men arrested for stealing from John W. Downey's house at Torriburn. This was not correct. The notorious Coke is still in Boston and the longing for his native land is not yet strong enough to persuade him to come back. The four prisoners, Robert Lester, aged 21, and George Walker, 23, and Charles Wilton, 16, of St. John, were brought to the city last night by Detective Killen.

This morning the four prisoners were brought before Judge Ritchie. The charge was read to them and they were returned without being asked to plead.

REPLY TO ROWING CHALLENGE.

A short time ago the Indiantown crew challenged the Millidgeville crew for a race for ten dollars, but the latter did not want to make professional terms, as they could not compete for the cup which they have held for two years in succession. They would be willing to meet them under any other arrangements.

DIED IN BOSTON.

E. W. Paul has received word of the death of his brother, William Paul, who occurred in Boston on Tuesday last. Mr. Paul, who has been living in Boston for the past twenty years, has been ill since last summer, when he was in St. John on a visit. Mr. Paul was seventy-two years of age, and leaves a wife, son and three daughters. The relatives in this city are E. W. and James A. Paul.

PRAYS TO WIFE

IN POLICE COURT

George Carlin Pleads For Forgiveness In Vain.

"Never," Said Wife, Who Had Been Beaten and Had Forgiveness Often Before.

There was a dramatic scene in the police court when George Carlin, of Britain street, charged with assaulting the recipient, charged with assaulting Anna Carlin, was brought before Magistrate Ritchie for examination. Very few spectators were present, as the case was brought on at an hour when the business of the day is usually over.

Mrs. Carlin was there to give evidence against her erring lord and master, and the scene between husband and wife was of a most unusual nature.

Carlin, it appears, has fallen into the habit of beating his wife, a habit by no means appreciated or enjoyed by the recipient, charged with assaulting Anna Carlin, was brought before Magistrate Ritchie for examination.
