CANDIDATES WILL PLEASE NOTE: That on next Tuesday morning, Aug. 17, we will cut from the list the names of all contestants not having 2,000 votes to their credit. This does not mean that you will be eliminated from the contest, but that your name will be kept on file in the Contest department, and will be restored to the list whenever the required number of votes are issued to your credit. So get busy now and find out how easy it is to increase your vote after you are once started.

CANDIDATES OUT OF THE CITY will remember that they can mail in their subscriptions Saturday night and they will receive the big ratio of votes, but all subscriptions must bear the post mark of August 14—If your votes do not appear in the paper promptly, remember that the mails are often delayed and that your letters do not always reach us in time to issue the votes and get them in the list on the following day—Always watch for the next issue of the paper and you will find the right count to your credit.
