

Synopsis

Of Minutes of the Annual Meeting of the Streetsville Presbyterian Congregation for the year 1891.

Pursuant to notice duly given, the annual congregational meeting was held on Monday evening, January 11th, 1892, in the lecture room of the church. After a social tea given by the ladies, the pastor took the chair and opened the meeting with devotional exercises. Mr. Nathaniel Steen was appointed Secretary.

The minutes of the last annual meeting were read and confirmed.

Full and satisfactory reports from the several organizations of the congregation were presented in order, and, as published in this printed pamphlet.

In connection with the Report from the Board of Managers, it was moved by Mr. N. Steen, seconded by Mr. R. A. Redding, that the thanks of the congregation be tendered to Mr. Joseph Featherston, Treasurer of the Board, for the able and satisfactory manner in which the yearly accounts are kept and presented. This motion was heartily carried.

Similar votes of thanks were proposed and carried to Mr. John McCauley, who retired from the Managing Board after six years of faithful and active service; and also to the ladies of the congregation who had, during the year, successfully completed their work.

The Historical Committee, appointed at the last annual meeting, reported that work had been commenced, but owing to the difficulty experienced in getting the mass of information into proper shape, they were unable to present their work in definite form at present. They were instructed to continue their labors.
